

Contents

Introduction by Mark Rose	I
I. Backgrounds
Starting Points by Kingsley Amis	9
Science Fiction and Literature by Robert Conquest	30
The Roots of Science Fiction by Robert Scholes	46
II. Theory
On the Poetics of the Science Fiction Genre by Darko Suvin	57
The Time-Travel Story and Related Matters of SF Structuring by Stanislaw Lem	72
Genre Criticism: Science Fiction and the Fántastic by Eric S. Rabkin	89
III. Approaches
On Science Fiction by C. S. Lewis	103

The Imagination of Disaster by Susan Sontag	116
How to Play Utopia: Some Brief Notes on the Distinctiveness of Utopian Fiction by Michael Holquist	132
The Apocalyptic Imagination, Science Fiction, and American Literature by David Ketterer	147
Science Fiction and the Future by John Huntington	156
Chronology of Important Dates	167
Notes on the Editor and Contributors	171
Selected Bibliography	173