

Contents:

FOREWORD / Cathy N. Davidson and E. M. Broner xi

I The Lost Mother

INTRODUCTION 2

1. Mothers and Daughters in Ancient Near Eastern Literature /
Judith Ochsborn 5
 2. Kriemhild and Clytemnestra—Sisters in Crime or Independent
Women? / Ida H. Washington and Carol E. W. Tobol 15
 3. Eve's Orphans: Mothers and Daughters in Medieval English Literature /
Nikki Stiller 22
 4. The New Mother of the English Renaissance: Her Writings on Motherhood / Betty S. Travitsky 33
 5. The Great Unwritten Story: Mothers and Daughters in Shakespeare /
Myra Glazer Schotz 44
-

II Daughters of the Patriarchy

INTRODUCTION 56

6. Jane Austen and the Tradition of the Absent Mother /
Susan Peck MacDonald 58
7. Unmothered Daughter and Radical Reformer: Harriet Martineau's
Career / Mitzi Myers 70
8. "The Mother's History" in George Eliot's Life, Literature and Political Ideology / Bonnie Zimmerman 81
9. Mothers and Daughters in Wives and Daughters: A Study of Elizabeth
Gaskell's Last Novel / Jacqueline Berke and Laura Berke 95

III Columbia's Daughters

INTRODUCTION 112

10. Mothers and Daughters in the Fiction of the New Republic /
Catby N. Davidson 115
11. Reconstruction in the House of Art: Emily Dickinson's "I Never Had a Mother" / Barbara Ann Clarke Mossberg 128
12. Ellen Glasgow: Daughter as Justified. / Linda W. Wagner 139
13. Mothers, Daughters, and Incest in the Late Novels of Edith Wharton /
Adeline R. Tintner 147

IV A Trinity of Mothers

INTRODUCTION 158

14. Reentering Paradise: Cather, Colette, Woolf and Their Mothers /
Jane Lilienfeld 160
15. How Light a Lighthouse for Today's Women? / *Irene G. Dash, Deena Dash
 Kushner, and Deborah Dash Moore* 176

V Mother as Medusa

INTRODUCTION 190

16. The Muse as Medusa / Karen Elias-Button 193
17. The Nightmare Repetition: The Mother-Daughter Conflict in Doris Lessing's Children of Violence / Katherine Fishburn 207
18. A Subtle Psychic Bond: The Mother Figure in Sylvia Plath's Poetry /
Mary Lynn Broe 217
19. The Hungry Jewish Mother / Erika Duncan 231
20. A Psychological Journey: Mothers and Daughters in English-Canadian Fiction / Lorna Irvine 242

VI The New Matrilineage

INTRODUCTION 254

21. "Don't never forget the bridge that you crossed over on": The Literature of Matrilineage / Nan Bauer Maglin 257
22. Spider Woman's Web: Mothers and Daughters in Southwestern Native
 American Literature / Helen M. Bannan 268

23. Mothers and Daughters: Another Minority Group /
Natalie M. Rosinsky 280
24. Heritages: Dimensions of Mother-Daughter Relationships in Women's Autobiographies / Lynn Z. Bloom 291
-

VII Bibliography

INTRODUCTION 306

25. Mothers and Daughters in Literature: A Preliminary Bibliography /
Gail M. Rudenstein, Carol Farley Kessler, and Ann M. Moore 309

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS 323