

CONTENTS

PREFACE	page xvii
1. SWIFT IN 1699: health—character—hopes	1
2. PREFERMENTS: return to Ireland (August 1699)—chaplain to Berkeley—deanery of Derry—vicar of Laracor—prebendary of St Patrick's Cathedral	5
3. VARINA DISMISSED: Jane Swift's marriage—Jane Waring's spinsterhood	16
4. VERSE AND PROSE	23
I. Swift's reputation as a poet—characteristics of his poetry—Swift and Butler—style of new poems—The Problem—The Petition of Frances Harris
II. Temple's Letters
5. THE POLITICS OF TRAVEL: the government of Ireland—William III and Ireland—Earl of Rochester—Swift goes to England (April 1701)	37
6. THE CONTESTS AND DISSENSIONS	44
I. Background—composition—publication
II. Temple's influence—essential doctrines
III. Imagery
IV. Argument—mixed government—fear of mob—distrust of parties—not a partisan argument
7. HISTORICAL SKETCHES: Swift's ambition to be an historian—English historiography—An Abstract of the History of England—The Reign of William II, etc.—Swift's method of writing history	59
8. PPT and MD	66
I. Esther Johnson and Rebecca Dingley—their move to Dublin—Swift's motives
II. European events—Swift returns to Ireland (September 1701)
III. Swift and the ladies

CONTENTS

9. CAST COURTIER	74
I. War begins—effect on English politics—William III dies
II. Effects of King's death—Swift goes to England (April 1702) —his opinions and hopes—meetings with Whig leaders
III. Swift and Burnet
IV. Swift's activities in England—return to Ireland (October 1702)
10. LARACOR AND DUBLIN	93
I. Occupations and parishioners at Laracor
II. Swift's budget
III. Archbishop King and Christ Church Cathedral
IV. Narcissus Marsh and his library—Swift and his superiors —Swift goes to England (November 1703)
V. Ormonde and the Irish Parliament of 1703-4—the Penal Law and the Test Act
11. ENGLAND: NOVEMBER 1703 TO MAY 1704	111
I. Occasional conformity and the war—Convocation —Swift's opinions
II. Swift and political parties
III. Swift and the bill against occasional conformity
IV. Somers and the dedication of A Tale of a Tub
V. The Sentiments of a Church-of-England Man —argument—underlying principles—Swift as an 'old Whig'
VI. Hopes for remission of First Fruits
VII. Esther Johnson and William Tisdall—Swift's reaction to Tisdall's proposal—publication of A Tale of a Tub —Swift arrives in Ireland (1 June 1704)
12. IRELAND FOR THREE AND A HALF YEARS, 1704-7	141
I. Church Preferments: Swift's budget—Archbishop King and the clergy of St Patrick's Cathedral—Swift and John Stearne —Stearne made dean—William Moreton, Bishop of Meath—Anthony Raymond
II. Convocation and Parliament: Irish Convocation of 1703-4 —religious divisions in Ireland—church and state—Lord Cutts
III. Britain: effect of war on government—union of Scotland and England—advance of Junto
IV. Swift and the Injured Lady: The Story of the Injured Lady—William Molyneux's doctrines—Verses on the Union

CONTENTS

v. Pembroke in Ireland: Ormonde as Lord Lieutenant —Pembroke as Lord Lieutenant—Sir Andrew Fountaine —Irish Parliament of 1707—Irish Convocation of 1707 —Marsh's library—Swift as a proctor—Swift and Pembroke vi. Literary Exercises: Swift's word-games—A Tritical Essay —Various Thoughts—Swift goes to England (November 1707)	195
13. ENGLAND: WINTER AND SPRING 1707-8
i. Arrival: social life in London—the Vanhomrighs and Anne Long ii. The Bickerstaff Papers: fortune-tellers—John Partridge —Predictions for the Year 1708—An Answer to Bickerstaff—The Accomplishment of the First of Mr Bickerstaff's Predictions—An Elegy on Mr Patridge—sequels iii. Aspirations: Swift's hopes and his character iv. Dr Swift and Archbishop King: their characters compared v. Preferment: bishopric of Waterford—curacy of St Nicholas Without—Swift and King vi. Politics: effect of long war—Robert Harley and Queen Anne —Abigail Masham—William Greg—Harley's fall (1708) —Swift's views vii. First Fruits: Pembroke's power—the Test and the First Fruits —Godolphin's opinion—Pembroke blocks Swift's manœuvres
14. ADDISON AND POETRY
i. Addison and Swift: civil and ecclesiastical preferment—Prior —Congreve—Addison and The Present State of the War —Swift and Addison compared—their first meetings ii. Steele and the Tatler: Steele's career—first meetings with Swift—influence of Swift on the Tatler—Ambrose Philips iii. Baucis and Philemon and Other Poems: Addison and Baucis and Philemon—A Description of the Morning	230
15. CHURCH AND STATE
i. A Preacher's Politics: Swift as an 'old Whig'—Swift and the Junto—his underlying sympathies ii. The Limits of Self-restraint: Swift and public policy iii. Remarks on Tindal's Rights of the Christian Church: unconvincing attack on Tindal	252

CONTENTS

IV. A Letter from a Member of the House of Commons in Ireland: Irish addresses and the Test—Pooley's address—Swift's views—Ralph Lambert—A Letter . . . concerning the Sacramental Test—faults and strengths of the Letter—Swift's motives	276
16. MORALITY AND RELIGION
I. Comparison of An Argument against Abolishing Christianity and A Project for the Advancement of Religion—incongruities
II. Rhetoric of the Argument
III. The Argument and the Test Act
IV. Self-satire in the Argument—pose of libertine
V. Moral implications of the Argument—nominal Christianity—Swift's alternative
VI. A Project for the Advancement of Religion
VII. Appeal of the Argument today
17. ENGLAND, 1708–9
I. Society: Swift's health—finances—recreations—friends—William Domville—Charles Ford—Robert Hunter—Anthony Henley—women friends—Catherine Barton—To Mrs. Biddy Floyd	298
II. Hessy: Swift's first acquaintance with Esther Vanhomrigh—Mr Vanhomrigh—Mishessy's attractions—Swift's rashness
III. After the Election: the Whig Parliament—Swift's hopes—breakdown of peace negotiations
IV. Preferment: Swift and Vienna—Wharton's chaplainship—Addison and Wharton—Swift and Wharton—the golden prebend
V. First Fruits: report of Pembroke's success—news of failure
VI. Etcetera Revised: reception of A Tale of a Tub—Atterbury's opinion—Congreve's reservations—Blackmore's attack—Wotton's attack—Swift's mixed attitude—his revisions—his 'Apology'—the fifth edition
VII. Temple's Memoirs III: Swift as editor—scandalous elements in Memoirs—quarrel with Lady Giffard
VIII. Return to Ireland: feelings before departure—A Famous Prediction of Merlin—last visit to his mother—petition to Halifax—return to Dublin (June 1709)

CONTENTS

18. MORE SUSPENSE: JULY 1709—AUGUST 1710	350
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. Addison and Ppt: Swift and Wharton—intimacy with Addison—Mrs Johnson's character II. Evenings in Town: Swift and Dublin society III. Hibernian Patriotism: Irish politics—Wharton's programme—Parliamentary issues—Wharton and Convocation IV. The Country Life: Laracor—visits to Ashe and Parnell V. Discontent: dissatisfaction with Ireland—mother's death—lack of preferment VI. The Shaking Season: England's war fatigue—Harley's progress—trial of Sacheverell—Sunderland's fall VII. The Lord Lieutenant Returns: Wharton and Addison in Dublin—A Letter to a Member of Parliament in Ireland—Wharton and Parliament—fall of Godolphin—Swift in Dublin—First Fruits mission—departure for England (31 August 1710)
19. DR SW--T	380
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. Season of Mists: journey to London—expectations—old and new friends—portrait by Jervas II. The City Shower: allusions to Virgil and Dryden—affection for London—reception of poem III. In Stays: Godolphin's rudeness—Swift's lack of commitment—Harley's needs—Francis Stratford and Erasmus Lewis—first meetings with Harley IV. Gathering the First Fruits: desire for recognition—blocks to public appreciation—preliminary steps towards First Fruits—Harley seems to comply—Harley's delays—grant apparently made—Swift removed as agent—Archbishop King's sympathy—credit to Ormonde—Swift's humiliation V. The Rhetoric of Impartiality: origin of the Examiner—Swift's motives in writing the Examiner—causes of success—elements of rhetoric—satirical devices—Examiner's character—Swift's emotional involvement—topics—faults VI. Miscellanies in Prose and Verse: shifts of plan—publication—political overtones
20. THE PEACEMAKERS	425
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. Broken Circles: Irish friends—relatives—gentry and ladies—Fountaine—Congreve—politics and friendship—Philips—Addison—Steele—Swift turns against Steele

CONTENTS

II. The Prince of Darkness: Wharton as arch-Whig—Swift's attacks—Wharton as Verres—A Short Character of . . . Wharton—Swift's view of his slanders III. New Acquaintance: Swift's Tory friends—Prior—Atterbury—Harley's Saturday dinners IV. Parties in Power: Harley and St John—Harley's affiliations—St John's ambitions—their co-operation and rivalry V. The Captain: Swift and St John—Swift's tolerance of his vices—Temple and St John—Swift quarrels with him—Swift's desire for harmony VI. The Colonel: Swift and Harley—quarrel over gift of money—parallels in background and character—Harley's health VII. Guiscard: espionage—examination of Guiscard—his attack on Harley—Swift's reaction—Harley's position strengthened—St John's jealousy—effect on Swift's writing—Some Remarks upon a Pamphlet VIII. Underpasses to Peace: St John and James Brydges—St John and Quebec—Harley's South Sea Company—Harley made Earl of Oxford and Lord Treasurer—peace negotiations—Prior's mission IX. A New Journey to Paris: background and composition—form contrasted with 'comic' hoax—the Windsor Prophecy—uses of personae	481
21. THE CONDUCT OF THE ALLIES
I. Purpose—composition and publication—reception II. Relation to secret articles of peace preliminaries—Swift's management of his audience III. Main arguments—St John's ambitions and Swift's rhetoric IV. Manipulation of evidence—use of confidential information—incongruity of tone and meaning—'polarizing' tendencies—confusion of past and present—reversal of normal connotations V. Effectiveness
22. HIGH LIFE
I. Courtiers and Brothers: 'The Society'—purposes of scheme—Swift at Windsor—Arbuthnot—Swift and the Society—Ormonde and Swift II. Christmas Crisis: peace preliminaries in Parliament—Nottingham changes sides—An Excellent New Song	502

CONTENTS

	—defeat of preliminaries in House of Lords—Swift's panic
	—Occasional Conformity Bill—death of Anne Long—the Windsor Prophecy—creation of twelve peers
III.	Some Advice to the October Club: purpose—argument—rhetoric
IV.	Marlborough: nature of Swift's attacks—'Bill of Ingratitude'—other Examiners—'Letter to Crassus'—The Conduct of the Allies—after Marlborough's fall—The History of the Four Last Years
V.	Some Remarks on the Barrier Treaty: occasion of writing—Representation of the House of Commons—purpose of Some Remarks—composition—argument—rhetoric—Swift and the Dutch
VI.	A Proposal for Correcting the English Tongue: background of scheme—composition—argument—literary value of Swift's attitude—political implications—reception—Swift's desire for fame
23.	LOW LIFE: Swift's kindness to humble people—his servant Patrick—daily routines—economies—investment in South Sea Company—health and exercise—illness	550
24.	SUSPENSE	561
I.	The Peace: Ormonde's 'restraining' orders—deaths in Louis XIV's family—King Philip's renunciation—Some Reasons . . . in a Letter to a Whig-Lord—A Letter of Thanks from My Lord Wharton—Toland's Invitation to Dismal—St John made Viscount Bolingbroke—Dunkirk occupied—Stamp Act—A Hue and Cry after Dismal—Bolingbroke goes to France
II.	High Life: range of acquaintance shrinks—the Mashams—Lady Orkney—the Society—the court—Duke of Hamilton—the Ormondes—Lady Ashburnham
III.	Eltee and Ld Bol: rivalry of Bolingbroke and Oxford—Bolingbroke's peerage—Swift's caution—Oxford's affection for Swift—bandbox plot—Oxford and Ormonde—Swift's mistake
IV.	Life and Letters: anti-clerical pamphlets—Anthony Collins—Mr. Collins's Discourse of Free-Thinking—Erasmus Lewis defended—peace concluded—Swift writes Lords' Address—Pope and Windsor Forest—political consequences

CONTENTS

of peace—George Berkeley—Addison and Cato—Whigs turned out v. The History of the Four Last Years : purpose—composition—delays—Swift's preferment and History—organization and rhetoric—faults and errors—brilliant characters	607
25. THE LIFE OF A SPIDER I. Patron without Preferment: Swift as pictured by Kennett—Swift as a patron—Pope—Ben Tooke and John Barber—Berkeley—Ppt's brother-in-law—William Diaper—William Harrison—continuation of Tatler—Harrison at Utrecht—Harrison's homecoming II. Dean Swift: early hopes—mixture of motives—insistence on independence—preferment postponed—deanery of Wells—Mrs Johnson's impression—deanery of St Patrick's suggested—Stearne's bishopric—Swift's playfulness—deaneries granted—turnabout—Ormonde's resistance—Swift made a dean—opposition of Archbishop of York—Duchess of Somerset—Swift's feelings	607
26. VANESSA AND PPT I. Swift and Hussy: journey to Ireland (June 1713)—Swift and Esther Vanhomrigh in mid-1713—in 1710 and 1711—Mrs Vanhomrigh's hospitality—Swift's motives—details hidden from Mrs Johnson—Swift's analysis of Hussy's character—secret meetings—the Windsor episode—reasons for relationship II. Cadenus and Vanessa: composition—argument—implications—mythological framework—style III. Pdfr and Ppt: Journal to Stella—'little language'—purpose of diary—Swift's discretion—dramatic elements in Journal—freedom of language—evasion of sexuality—Pdfr's separation from Ppt IV. Ireland: Swift's attitude towards his deanship—Raymond and Moynet—Parnell's preferment—impressions of Ireland—news from England—elections—Swift leaves for England (29 August 1713)	635
27. BOLINGBROKE'S RISE I. Swift and Oxford: Bolingbroke and Oxford in the autumn of 1713—Oxford's son marries—To Lord Harley—Swift's	671

- attachment to both rivals*—Part of the Seventh Epistle of the First Book of Horace Imitated—Oxford's daughter dies—visits to Windsor—attempts to reconcile two ministers
- II. Swift and Steele: Steele and the Examiner—Swift's letter of protest—Steele's incredulity—Swift's resentment—the Guardian and the Examiner—Steele's anger and generosity—Swift's rebuttal—Dunkirk and the Guardian—Steele in Parliament—The Importance of Dunkirk—The Importance of the Guardian
- III. Swift and Burnet: A Preface to the Bishop of Sarum's Introduction
- IV. The Publick Spirit of the Whigs: parallels between Steele and Swift—Steele as Whigs' chief propagandist—The Crisis—composition, publication, analysis—Steele on Scotland—Swift's Publick Spirit—basic argument—rhetoric—structure—attack on Scotland—Swift's polemical style—reception of Publick Spirit—proceedings in House of Lords—Nottingham's vindictiveness—Swift's fears—Steele as M.P.—attacked by Tories—expelled from Parliament
- V. Ireland: Swift's worries about deanery affairs—St Patrick's Cathedral—the choir—relations with Christ Church Cathedral—the prolocutorship—Irish bishoprics—the primacy—Lindsay chosen over Archbishop King—Irish Parliament—Constantine Phipps—Shrewsbury as Lord Lieutenant—riot at polls—Shrewsbury and Parliament
- VI. Scriblerus: origins of 'club'—Pope and Gay—Oxford—evolution of scheme—contrasts with Addison and Steele—functions of group

28. OXFORD'S FALL

728

- I. Letcombe: Swift's despair over ministers' quarrel—plan to go to Letcombe Bassett—political crisis in Ireland—crisis in England deepens—Swift leaves London (31 May 1714)
- II. Prose and Verse: life in Letcombe—the Schism Act—The Author upon Himself—Some Free Thoughts upon the Present State of Affairs—style and argument—no publication—imitation of Horace, Hoc erat
- III. Historiographer: rumours about History of Four Last Years—Swift's desire to be Historiographer Royal—failure to secure post

CONTENTS

- IV. Vanessa: death of Mrs Vanhomrigh—Hessy's dependence on Swift—her visit to Wantage
- V. Spearing the Dragon: Oxford's counter-attacks—Queen dismisses Oxford (27 July 1714)—Swift's relaxations in Letcombe—his desire to be with Oxford
- VI. Weary Travellers: Queen dies (1 August 1714)—Swift's shifting plans—desire to linger in England—effects of Queen's death—Swift must take oaths in Ireland arrangements for departure—arrival in Dublin (24 August 1714)—effects of new reign on his friends—Swift's view of his years under Queen Anne

APPENDICES

765

- A. The Date of Swift's Sentiments, 1704
- B. Swift's List of Subjects for a Volume, 1708
- C. Percival's Sketch of Swift
- D. An Account of the Bandbox Plot
- E. Swift's Notes on Oxford's Ministry in the Autumn of 1713
- F. Abbreviated References
- G. Note on Quotations