

Contents

Foreword	vii.
Preface	ix.
Principal Abbreviations	xi.
Chapter 1: Acts and Historicity	1
The Neglect of Historicity	1
Historicity and Scholarship	3
Objections to an Attempt to Reopen the Question	14
The Importance of Historicity	19
Conclusions	29
Chapter 2: Preliminary Questions	30
The Unity of Luke-Acts	30
The Genre of Luke-Acts	33
The Meaning of Historicity	43
Approaches to the Question	49
The Textual Problem	53
Sources for the Context	57
Chapter 3: Ancient Historiography	63
The Problem of 'Parallels'	63
Literature about Ancient Historiography	66
Topics Illustrating the Diversity of Ancient Historiographical Practice	70
Biography as an Alternative Model for the Historiography of Luke	91
Luke and Josephus	94
Conclusions	99
Chapter 4: Types of Knowledge Displayed in Acts	101
Common Knowledge	107
Specialized Knowledge	108
Specific Local Knowledge	108
Chapter 5: The Evidence of Historical Details in Acts	159
Correlations of Date with Ostensible Chronology	159
Details Broadly Suggestive of Date	175
Correlations between Acts and Epistles	181
Latent Internal Correlations within Acts	190
Details Involving Differences between Alexandrian and Western Texts	193
Unstudied Allusions	201
Differences of Formulation within Acts	202
Peculiar Selection of Detail	206
Immediacy in Details	209

vi The Book of Acts in the Setting of Hellenistic History

Idioms or Cultural Features Suggestive of
Date of Composition	210
Interrelated Complexes Leading to Larger
Areas of Historical Reconstruction	214
New Background Information: Unfinished Tasks	216
Uncheckable Details	217
Implications	219
Excursus: Names And Titles In Acts	221
Local Names and Titles Illustrative of the Text	221
'Jerusalem' and 'Luke'	239
Place-Names and Ethnic Titles in Acts and the Inscriptions	241
Chapter 6: Acts and Epistles	244
Introduction	244
'Theological Disparity' between Paul and Luke	245
The Heart of the Historical Question	247
Chronology	251
Integration: 57-62	255
Integration: 50-52	255
Reconstruction: 52-57	256
Reconstruction: pre-50	261
Dates of the Epistles	270
Chapter 7: The Galatian Question	277
Objections Considered	280
'Galatia' and 'Galatians'	290
Concluding Remarks	305
Chapter 8: Authorship and Sources	308
Introduction	308
The 'We-Passages'	312
The Meaning of the 'We-Passages': Internal Evidence	321
The Meaning of the 'We-Passages': External Evidence	329
Sources	335
Chapter 9: The Date of Acts	365
The State of the Question	366
General Indications	376
The Ending of Acts	383
The 'Immediacy' of Acts	388
The End of Paul's Life	390
The Composition of Luke-Acts	404
The Ending of Luke-Acts: A Suggestion	406
Conclusions Summarized	408
Chapter 10: Conclusion	411
Appendix 1: Speeches and Miracles in Acts	415
Appendix 2: The 'God-fearers'	444
Indexes	448