

Table of Contents

Foreword — David M. Levy, M.D.	15
Introduction	17
Section I The Basic Technique	23
1. The Basic Mechanics of the Method	25
2. The First Story in Treatment	32
3. The Early Phase of Therapy	65
4. The Middle Phase of Therapy	100
5. The Late Phase of Therapy	180
6. The Termination Phase of Therapy	226
7. Basic Technique Modifications	264
Section II Utilizing the Mutual Storytelling Technique to Treat Common Clinical Problems	321
8. Oedipal Problems	323
9. Anger Inhibition Problems	452
10. Self-esteem Problems	516
11. Superego Deficiencies	557
12. Situational Reactions	596
Reactions to Divorce	596
Death of a Parent	614
Traumatic Surgery	662
13. Psychogenic Problems Secondary to Minimal Brain Dysfunction	681
The Primary Signs and Symptoms	683

	The Secondary Signs and Symptoms	688
	Acute Parental Adaptive Reactions	690
	Chronic Parental Adaptive Reactions	699
	Adaptive Reactions in the Child	704
Section III	Clinical Examples of Full Courses of Treatment	791
	14. A Girl with a Psychogenic Learning Disorder	793
	15. A Girl with Psychogenic Coughing	816
	16. A Girl with School Phobia	850
	17. A Boy with Post-traumatic Neurosis	902
	Concluding Comment	938
	References	941
	Patient Index	951
	Subject Index	953