

Contents

Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
I. The First Phase, August 1914–July 1916	9
1. The Makers of Policy	9
2. First Principles	11
3. Government and Society	15
4. France and its Allies: (i) an Over-Mighty Russia?	24
5. France and its Allies: (ii) Briand, Belgium, Poland, and the Paris Economic Conference of June 1916	29
II. The Emergence of a Grand Design, July 1916–March 1917	36
1. The Briand Government and Security, July–November 1916	36
2. The German and American Peace Notes and the Allied Replies, December 1916–January 1917	45
3. The Grand Design Accepted: the Cambon Letter and the Northern Flank, January 1917	48
4. The Application of the Grand Design: (i) Poland, Russia, and the Doumergue Agreement, November 1916–March 1917	51
5. The Application of the Grand Design: (ii) the Austrian Counterweight and the Mediation of Prince Sixte de Bourbon, November 1916–March 1917	56
III. The Watershed, March–November 1917	61
1. The Crisis of 1917	61
2. The Russian Revolution and the Suspension of the Grand Design, March–September 1917	64
3. Painlevé, the General Staff, and the Austrian Option, July–August 1917	73
4. Britain, America, and the Readjustment of French War Aims, March–November 1917	75
5. War and Peace under the Painlevé Ministry, September–November 1917	88

IV. The Clemenceau Ministry and the Allies, November 1917–October 1918	94
1. The New Ministry	94
2. The Bolshevik Revolution and the Fourteen Points, November 1917–March 1918	97
3. Eastern Europe and Economic War Aims, March–July 1918	103
4. In Expectation of Victory, August–October 1918	110
V. The Armistice, October–November 1918	115
1. The Decision	115
2. The First Paris Conference and American Arbitration	118
3. The Second Paris Conference and the German Revolution	124
VI. From War Aims to Peace Aims, November 1918–March 1919	133
1. Stability and Security	133
2. Faits accomplis , November 1918–March 1919	136
3. Sounding out the Allies, November 1918–March 1919	144
4. The Definition of French Negotiating Aims, November 1918–February 1919	149
VII. France and the Making of the Treaty of Versailles, January–June 1919	161
1. The Peace Conference	161
2. Opening Moves, January–March 1919	163
3. The Crucial Compromises, March–May 1919	171
4. To the Hall of Mirrors, May–June 1919	188
Conclusion	198
Appendixes	216
I. Alsace–Lorraine and the Saar	216
II. The Left Bank of the Rhine	219
III. Luxemburg	220
IV. Poland	222
Bibliography	224

	Contents	xi
References		234
Index		274

Maps

I. Alsace-Lorraine and the Saar	217
II. The Rhine Basin in 1914	221
III. Poland and its Neighbours	223