

Table of Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	1

Part I

The Problem of Probation in the Epistle of James and Other Jewish Literature

Chapter 1: The Epistle of James and the Discourse of Probation	11
1.1. The Semantics of Probation in James	12
1.1.1. The Semantics of Probation	12
1.1.2. The Exegesis of Probation.....	14
1.1.3. Summary of the Problem of Probation	15
1.2. History of Scholarship.....	15
1.2.1. James and the History of the Semantics of Probation.....	16
1.2.2. Probation and Biblical Hermeneutics.....	23
1.3. The Problem with the Semantics in Jas 1:2–14.....	25
1.3.1. The Problem of Semantic Controls	26
1.3.2. The Value of Semantic Ambiguity for Author and Reader	26
1.4. A Way Forward: Cosmic Drama and Biblical Hermeneutics.....	27
1.4.1. The Metaphor of Cosmic Drama.....	27
1.4.2. Biblical Interpretation	29
1.4.3. Instantiations of Jewish Interpretation	29
 Chapter 2: Comparative Methodology and Historical Models ...	31
2.1. The Debated Historical Situation of the Epistle of James.....	31
2.1.1. Historical Silence on the Epistle of James	32

2.1.2. James in Apostolic Conflict: The Legacy of 18th–19th Century Protestant Thought	33
2.1.3. James in Apostolic Communion.....	35
2.1.4. James and Popular Hellenistic Philosophy.....	37
2.1.5. Blurring the Boundary Lines.....	37
2.1.6. Conclusions on the Historical Analysis of James.....	39
2.2. Assessing Comparative Literature.....	40
2.2.1. Additional Considerations on Ancient Sources.....	41
2.3. Conclusions on a Methodology and a Structure for the Investigation	43
Chapter 3: Current Conversations in Jewish Cosmology.....	45
3.1. Heavenly Trials and Inversions of the Divine Courtroom	45
3.2. Debates on Jewish Anthropology	48
3.2.1. The Human Yetzer in the Old Testament	48
3.2.2. Translating Yetzer	49
3.2.3. Scholarly Debates on the Significance and Development of the Yetzer	51
Summary of Chapter 3	56

Part II

Divine Probation in Jewish Literature

Chapter 4: Rewritten Bible and Demonic Paradigms	61
4.1. The Book of Jubilees	62
4.1.1. God in the Courtroom	62
4.1.2. Satan as Prosecutor and the Demonic Paradigm	63
4.1.3. Human Weakness and Divine Intervention	64
4.1.4. Apotropaic Prayers in Jubilees	65
4.1.5. Summary of Theological Cosmology in Jubilees	68
4.1.6. Exegetical Solutions to Divine Probation in Jubilees	69
4.2. Further Examples from Rewritten Bible in Qumran.....	72
4.3. Conclusions to Rewritten Bible.....	73
Chapter 5: The Wisdom of Ben Sira and Human Ability	75
5.1. Probation and Divine Responsibility in Sirach	76
5.2. Ben Sira's Internalised Cosmology	78

5.2.1. Ben Sira and the Human Inclination	78
5.3. Ben Sira's Hermeneutic of Probation.....	86
5.3.1. Abraham's Unblemished Glory.....	87
5.3.2. Adam's Glory and the Image of God	88
5.3.3. Abraham the Law-Keeper	92
5.3.4. Abraham Tested, Faithful, and Unblemished.....	93
5.4. Conclusions to Sirach's Internalised Cosmology.....	93
Chapter 6: Philo and Hellenistic Philosophy.....	95
6.1. Cosmic Drama and the Problem of Evil In Philo.....	97
6.1.1. Defending God	98
6.1.2. The Role of Intermediaries in Philo's Cosmology	100
6.1.3. On the Suppression of Demonic Forces.....	102
6.2. Philo and the Anthropology of Probation.....	102
6.2.1. Human Nature and Base Desire	103
6.2.2. Ascent to the Divine Mind	104
6.2.3. Summary of Philo's Cosmology	105
6.3. Philo's Philosophical Hermeneutic	105
6.3.1. Philo's Hermeneutic of the Letter and Spirit.....	106
6.3.2. The Probation of Adam and Eve	107
6.3.3. The Probations of Abraham and the Patriarchs.....	108
6.3.4. Conclusion to Philo's Hermeneutic of Probation	112
Chapter 7: The Pseudo-Clementine Homilies	115
7.1. Probation within the Pseudo-Clementine Homilies	116
7.2. The Cosmic Drama of the Pseudo-Clementine Homilies	117
7.2.1. Demonic Cosmology and Subordinate Dualism	118
7.2.2. Demonic Anthropology	119
7.2.3. Summary of the Cosmic Drama of the Pseudo-Clementines.....	120
7.3. The Hermeneutic of Rejection	120
7.4. Conclusions to the Pseudo-Clementine Homilies	122
Chapter 8: Rabbinic Traditions and Demonic Anthropology ...	125
8.1. The Divine Council and the Rabbinic Courtroom	125
8.2. Satan and Demons as Cosmic Agents	127
8.3. The Evil Yetzer in Rabbinic Anthropology.....	129
8.3.1. The Single Yetzer and the School of R. Akiva.....	129
8.3.2. The Single Yetzer and the School of R. Ishmael	130

8.3.3. The Double Yetzer	132
Excursus 1: The Development of the Yetzer	134
8.3.4. The Yetzer as Cosmic Enemy	136
8.4. Rabbinic Hermeneutics of Probation	137
8.4.1. Kivvakhol Texts and Divine Intermediation.....	138
8.4.2. The Probations of Job and Abraham	139
8.5. Conclusions to the Rabbinic Literature.....	143
Excursus 2: Additional Diversity within Jewish Thought.....	144
Summary of Part II: Convergence and Divergence in Jewish Theological Cosmologies.....	153

Part III

A Hermeneutic of Probation in the Epistle of James

Chapter 9: A Theology of Probation in the Epistle of James	157
9.1. James and Divine Agency	157
9.1.1. The Law Court with Human and Divine Judges.....	158
9.1.2. Distinctions of Religious Loyalty	159
9.1.3. Humans Judging God's Character.....	160
9.1.4. Divine Acquittal	161
9.1.5. Conclusion to James' Theology of Probation.....	161
9.2. James and External Cosmic Agents	162
9.3. James and Anthropology	164
9.3.1. Primary Anthropological Passages in James.....	165
9.3.2. James' Anthropology: Scholarly Models	173
9.3.3. Reevaluating James' Anthropology.....	178
9.3.4. Human Desire as the Target of Satanic Attack.....	182
9.4. James and the Cosmic Drama of Probation	184
Chapter 10: The Epistle of James and a Hermeneutic of Testing	185
10.1. The First Temptation: The Creation in James 1:14–18	185
10.1.1. Exegesis of James 1:13–18	186
10.1.2. James 1:13–16 and its Surrounding Context.....	190
10.1.3. Jas 1:13–16 and the Protological Testing Narratives	192
10.1.4. Conclusion to the Protological Temptation.....	196
10.2. Tested Abraham.....	199

10.2.1. Genesis 15 and Genesis 22.....	201
10.2.2. The Piety of Abraham in Other Jewish Discourses.....	202
10.2.3. Traditional Problems with Abraham and the Aqedah.....	209
10.3. Patient Job	211
10.3.1. James, Job, and the Contemporary Exegetical Discourse...	212
10.3.2. The Extra-Canonical Stories of Job	214
10.4. Abraham and Job as Interwoven Narratives.....	216
10.4.1. Job and Abraham as Parallel Figures	217
10.4.2. Was Job or Abraham the Greater Patriarch?	219
10.4.3. Abraham and Job within Assimilated Narratives	221
10.5. Two Examples of the ‘Jobraham’ Hermeneutic in Jewish Literature	222
10.5.1. The Testament of Abraham	223
10.5.2. The Testament of Job	226
10.6. Constructing ‘Jobraham’	229
10.6.1. ‘Jobraham’ and the Hermeneutic of James	230
10.6.2. James and ‘Jobraham’	234
10.6.3. Additional Considerations from Broader Discourses.....	234
 Conclusions	 237
 Bibliography	 240
Index of Ancient Sources.....	261
Index of Modern Authors.....	270
Index of Subjects.....	274