

CONTENTS.

Presentation by Doctor Francesco Borri, President of the Deputazione di Storia Patria per le Province Parmensi.	ix
Sommario: Impero e Comune, Parma 833-1133.	xi
Preface.	xxi
INTRODUCTION.	1
PART I. The Authority of the Counts of Parma and its Dissolution.	15
Introductory. The County of Parma.	17
1. The Counts of Parma and the Transformation of their Office.	30
A. The Counts of Parma as Appointed Royal Officials.	34
B. The Hereditary Succession to the Office of Count of Parma.	39
C. Crisis and Termination.	44
2. The Disintegration of the County of Parma.	52
A. The Rise of New Families in the County of Parma.	55
B. Traditional and Geographic Elements in the Forma- tion of Minor Jurisdictions.	64
C. The Position of the City and its Territory in the County.	68
Summary.	73
PART II. The Patrimonial Authority of the Bishops of Parma.	75
Introductory. The Patrimony of the Church of Parma.	77
1. The Landholdings of the Church of Parma.	90
A. The Major Phases in the Development of the Landed Wealth of the Church of Parma.	91
B. The Acquisition of Large Landholdings by the Church of Parma up to the End of the Eleventh Century.	98

C. The Social Position of the Church of Parma as a Great Landholder.	117
2. The Public Authority of the Bishops of Parma.	127
A. The Secular Jurisdictions and Rights of the Church of Parma in its Charters.	130
B. The Secular Jurisdictions and Rights of the Church and Imperial Policy.	141
C. The Public Authority of the Church of Parma in the Investiture Conflict.	148
Summary.	164
PART III. The Origins of the Commune of Parma.	167
Introductory. The Laity in the Lombard Bishop's Cities.	169
1. The Laity of Parma Before the Revolt of 1037.	182
A. Lay Groups at Parma Before 1037.	182
B. The Formation of the Citizenry.	190
C. The Laity Between Count and Bishop.	197
2. From Civic Immunity to Civic Lordship, 1037-1133.	202
A. Citizens and Artisans in the Revolt of 1037.	203
B. Imperial Policy and the Immunity of the People of Parma.	205
C. The Growth of the Civic Lordship of Parma.	211
3. The Formation of the Commune.	225
A. The People and the Civic Assembly.	226
B. Boni Homines and Consuls.	232
C. Civic Rights and the Commune.	242
Synthesis.	251
CONCLUSION.	254
Appendices.	261
A. The Boundaries of the Municipal Territory, the Diocese, the Gastaldato, and the County of Parma.	263
B. Royal Possessions in the County of Parma, 833-1133.	279
C. The Buildings of the Church of Parma Before 1133.	284

D. The Location of Bishop Vibod's Share of the Forest of Soragna.	294
E. The Common Life in the Chapter of Parma in the Eleventh Century.	297
F. The Extent and Purpose of the Interpolations in the Charter of Otto III for the Church of Parma.	303
G. The Hildebrandine Reform Party in the Diocese of Parma.	316
H. The Passage of Parma to the Reform Party in August 1104 According to Donizo and the Three Lives of St. Bernard degli Uberti.	322
Bibliography.	335
Abbreviations.	371
Chronology.	377
Index.	381