

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	viii
Introduction	1
1 The Shape of Late Medieval Religious Thought	9
The Crisis of Authority within the Church	12
Forerunners of the Reformation	28
2 Humanism and the Reformation	32
The Problem of Definition	32
Characteristic Features of Northern European Humanism	38
Humanism and the Origins of the Reformed Church	43
Humanism and the Origins of the Lutheran Church	59
3 Late Medieval Theology and the Reformation	69
Nominalism: The Problem of Definition	70
Via Moderna	75
Schola Augustiniana Moderna	86
Late Medieval Theology and the Origins of the Reformed Church	93
Late Medieval Theology and the Origins of the Lutheran Church	108
4 Sources and Methods: The Text of Scripture	122
5 Sources and Methods: Scripture and Tradition	140
The Concept of Tradition	141
The Principle Sola Scriptura	148

6	Sources and Methods: The Interpretation of Scripture	152
	The Four-fold Sense of Scripture	152
	The Letter and the Spirit	154
	Hermeneutics and the Origins of the Lutheran Church	158
	Hermeneutics and the Origins of the Reformed Church	167
7	Sources and Methods: The Patristic Testimony	175
	The Patristic Testimony and the Origins of the Lutheran Church	183
	The Patristic Testimony and the Origins of the Reformed Church	187
8	Sources and Methods: Towards the Universalization of Method	191
	Conclusion	197
	Select Bibliography	204
	Index	218