

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | vii |
| 1 Introduction | 1 |
| Definitions | 1 |
| Historical development and current status | 2 |
| Interdisciplinary ethos | 4 |
| Comparisons with other social work methods | 5 |
| 2 Theoretical frameworks I | 10 |
| General systems theory | 11 |
| Wholeness | 12 |
| Protection and growth | 13 |
| Communication | 17 |
| Causality | 20 |
| Purpose | 21 |
| 3 Theoretical frameworks II | 23 |
| The psycho-analytic framework: integration of the two theoretical models | 23 |
| Distinguishing features of the two theories | 25 |
| The family myth | 27 |
| Family transference | 29 |
| Interlocking pathology | 32 |
| 4 Engaging the family in treatment | 35 |
| Initial contact | 35 |
| The first interview | 36 |
| The place of history | 37 |
| Assessment | 39 |
| Establishing the ground rules | 41 |

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Shifting the focus to the family group | 42 |
| Constructing a contract | 43 |
| The therapist's use of himself | 45 |
| 5 The treatment process | 47 |
| Coupling techniques | 49 |
| Defined problem-solving | 52 |
| Behavioural approaches | 59 |
| Mechanical aids | 61 |
| The course of treatment | 64 |
| 6 Task-centred family therapy | 69 |
| Therapeutic tasks | 70 |
| Case illustration | 71 |
| Paradoxical injunctions | 80 |
| Using the format of the sessions | 84 |
| 7 Action techniques | 87 |
| Family sculpting | 87 |
| Communication through action | 103 |
| Interpretation through action | 107 |
| 8 Co-therapy | 110 |
| Creating the partnership | 111 |
| The choice of partner | 113 |
| Technique | 114 |
| Inherent difficulties | 119 |
| 9 Indications and contra-indications | 123 |
| A general systems approach to problem-solving | 123 |
| Research | 125 |
| Family taxonomies | 125 |
| Indications for considering family therapy | 127 |
| Contra-indications | 132 |
| 10 Special problems | 138 |
| Beginning family therapy | 138 |
| The inclusion of young children in the treatment sessions | 141 |
| Records | 145 |
| The problem of power | 147 |
| The family therapist's ideology | 151 |
| Bibliography | 155 |