
Contents

Preface, vii Acknowledgments, xvii

PART I. Proposing a Model: Feminism and Narratology

- Chapter 1. Introduction: Why Don't Feminists 'Do'
Narratology? 3
- Chapter 2. A Model of Gendered Intervention: Engaging and Distancing Narrative Strategies 25

PART II. Testing the Model: Interventions in Texts

- Chapter 3. Engaging Strategies, Earnestness, and Realism:
Mary Barton 47
- Chapter 4. Distancing Strategies, Irony, and Metafiction:
Yeast and Vanity Fair 72
- Chapter 5. Women's Narrators Who Cross Gender:
Uncle Tom's Cabin and Adam Bede 101
- Chapter 6. Men's Narrators Who Cross Gender:
Can You Forgive Her? and Bleak House 134

PART III. Reflecting upon the Model: Gendered Interventions in History

- Chapter 7. The Victorian Place of Enunciation: Gender and the Chance to Speak 159
- Chapter 8. Direct Address and the Critics: What's the Matter with "You"? 192

Notes, 207 Works Cited, 223 Index, 237