

Contents

	Introduction: The Renaissance Killing Poem	3
ONE	Courting Heresy and Taking the Subject: John Skelton's Precedent	17
TWO	Spenser and the Poetics of Indiscretion	50
THREE	The Properties of Shakespeare's Globe	86
FOUR	The Witch of Edmonton and the Guilt of Possession	114
FIVE	Samson's Death by Theater and Milton's Art of Dying	139
SIX	Guilt and the Constitution of Authorship in Henry V and the Antitheatrical Elegies of W. S. and Milton	172
	Notes	207
	Index	263