

Contents

A Note on Citation xi

INTRODUCTION The Will to Modernity and the Structure of Modernism 1

PROLOGUE Hardy, Lawrence, and the Disruptions of Nature 11

“The Ache of Modernism” 13

“Modernism” Compounded 17

Hardy’s Reflexive Realism: Deferred Action in The Mayor of Casterbridge 22

ONE The Belated Reader 37

Matthew Arnold and the Deliberate
Compensations of Prose 39

Does All Art Aspire to the Condition of Music? 53

Pater’s Necropolis 59

TWO Two Versions of High British Modernism 69

Repression and the Individual Talent 71

The Waste Land: The Flight from Lucifer 87

Art and Ideology in the Four Quartets 109

“Double Writing” in Dubliners 120

	A Portrait of the Artist as Critic	128
	Ulysses : On Translating Homer	138
THREE	The Bloomsbury Novel and the Production of the Real	159
	“Psychic Economy”	161
	Howards End : Private Worlds and Public Languages	166
	Deferred Action in To the Lighthouse	182
	Eminent Victorians : Strachey’s Counterplot	192
	Victor/Victoria	199
	The Earl of Essence	213
EPILOGUE	Conrad as a Pedagogy of Reading	227
	The Myth of Heart of Darkness	229
	The Secret Sharer : “Something Against Nature”	232
	Decentering Heart of Darkness : Modernism as Metacriticism	235
	Works Cited	247
	Index	257