

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Work Cited	3
1. The Recognition of Historical and Cultural Relativity	4
Illustrations from the History of Christology	5
The Theological Importance of the Recognition     of Historical and Cultural Relativity	23
Works Cited	30
2. Reexamining How God “Acts”	32
Friedrich Schleiermacher: God, Known in     Religious Experience, Is Not a Bungler	35
Paul Tillich: God as Ecstatically Known     Spiritual Presence	43
Gordon Kaufman: The History of the Cosmos as     God’s Master Act	49
Schubert Ogden: God in the Process	56
Karl Barth: Christian Faith Is Response to     God’s Supernatural Acts	63
Works Cited	67
3. Reinterpreting Revelation and Authority	69
Reinterpreting Revelation	69
Reinterpreting Authority	85
Works Cited	95

4. Reassessing Language, Meaning, and Truth in Theology	97
Traditional Approaches to the Problem of Talking about God	98
Modern Approaches to the Problem of Talking about God	100
Works Cited	124
5. Reaffirming Sovereign Grace	126
The Gospel in Some Modern Theologies	126
Sovereign Grace and Modern Theology	145
Works Cited	152
Index	154