

CONTENTS

PREFACE vii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xi

1 INTRODUCTION

Defining the Regional 3

Related Terminology 10

The Beginnings of Regionalism 17

Part One: Towards Regionalism

2 SIR WALTER SCOTT

The Romance of Place 23

The Power of the Past 27

Manners, Mores, and Facts 29

Scott and Locality 33

3 EMILY BRONTË

The Legacy of Scott: Romance and Realism 41

Gimmerton and 'the Moors' 44

Regional and Elemental 47

4 URBANISM, REALISM, AND REGION

Charlotte Brontë and Shirley 51

Elizabeth Gaskell 54

George Eliot 61

Part Two: The Flowering of Regionalism

5 R.D. BLACKMORE

- Blackmore, Regionalism, and Historical Romance 69
Blackmore, the Doones, and Scott 74
The Achievement of Lorna Doone 78

6 THOMAS HARDY

- Hardy and the Idea of a Region 85
The Creation of Wessex 89
'Historian of Wessex' 95
Change in the Region 100

7 REGIONAL REALISM

- Eden Phillpotts and Dartmoor 109
Sheila Kaye-Smith and the Weald 116

8 REGIONAL ROMANCE

- The 'enchanted land' of Constance Holme 123
Mary Webb's Allegorical Topography 129

Part Three: Beyond Regionalism

9 D.H. LAWRENCE

- 'The country of my heart' 143
Regional Beginnings 147
Widening Circles: The Rainbow and After 151

10 JOHN COWPER POWYS

- Regional Ancestors and Regional Distinctions 157
An Alternative Wessex 161
Transcending Regionalism 165

11 CONCLUSION

- The Passing of Regionalism 173
Cold Comfort Farm and All That 174

NOTES 179

INDEX 193