

---

CONTENTS

---

John Maynard Keynes	ix
Introduction	xiii
PART 1
Toward a Vision of Capitalism
1	The Indian Monetary System and the Role of Financial Institutions 3
2	The Paris Peace Conference: European Reconstruction and the Fragility of the Capitalist Accumulation Process 15
3	Inflation, Deflation, and the Return to Gold 33
4	Cassandra and the Myth of the Invisible Hand 49
PART 2
The Outline of a General Theory
5	Money, Profits, and Prices Under Full Employment 63
6	Orthodoxy and Heresy in A Treatise on Money 77
7	The Logical Premise to a Critique of the Traditional Theory 101
8	The General Theory: Consumption, Investment, and Effective Demand 115

9	The General Theory: The Characteristics of a Monetary Economy	137
10	Keynes and the Classical Economists	155
11	The Significance of Keynes's Equilibrium	173
	Works Cited	185
	Index	191