

	Preface	7
	Endtime Warriors – A Foreword by the Editors	8
	Wulff E. Brebeck, Kirsten John-Stucke: Wewelsburg – About the Historical Site	10
	Kirsten John-Stucke: Origins, Conceptual Principles, and Structure of the Exhibition “Ideology and Terror of the SS”	20
1	Introduction	33
1.1	The Pivotal Year of 1941	34
1.2	The SS and Wewelsburg / A Chronology	44
2	The SS in Wewelsburg – Biographical Approaches	57
2.1	Organizational Status and Financing of Wewelsburg Castle	58
2.2	Biographies of SS Men in Wewelsburg	60
3	The Organization of the SS – Biographical Approaches	91
3.1	Heinrich Himmler	92
3.2	The Allgemeine SS	96
3.3	The SS and Police	104
3.4	The Armed Units of the SS	112
4	Worldview – Mindset – Crimes	125
4.1	National Socialist Society and the SS	126
4.2	Exclusion: Persecution by the SS, 1933 – 1939	131
4.3	Myths – Rules – Rituals: The Internal World of the SS	147
5	The Castle and Village of Wewelsburg, 1933 – 1939	189
5.1	Wewelsburg Castle, 1933 – 1939	190
5.2	The Village of Wewelsburg, 1933 – 1939	202
6	Crimes of the SS during World War II	213
6.1	The Organized Terror of Occupation	215
6.2	SS Settlement Policies and Crimes	219
6.3	The Murder of Soviet Prisoners of War	223
6.4	The Genocide of the Jews	227
6.5	The Extermination Camps	231
6.6	The Persecution and Murder of Sinti and Roma	235
6.7	The Concentration Camp System, 1939 – 1945	239
6.8	Crimes of the Waffen-SS	242
6.9	Exploitation and Violence in the Collapsing Reich	246
7	Wewelsburg Castle during the War	251
7.1	Wewelsburg Castle in World War II: Its People, Tasks, and Objectives	252
7.2	Unbridled Claims to Power and Architectural Megalomania	266
7.3	Redesign and Resettlement	273
7.4	Wewelsburg as the Site of National Socialist Camps	276
7.5	The Northern Tower: The Crypt	282
7.6	The Northern Tower: The Obergruppenführer Hall	285
8	The Concentration Camp in Wewelsburg	291
8.1	The Development of the Concentration Camp, 1939 – 1943	292
8.2	Wewelsburg as an External Work Detachment of Buchenwald Concentration Camp, 1943 – 1945	322
9	Concentration Camp Prisoners in Wewelsburg	327
9.1	Prisoners at the Concentration Camp in Wewelsburg	328
9.2	Prisoner Experiences at the Camp	346
9.3	The Concentration Camp and the Village: A Forced Coexistence	358
10	The End of SS Rule in Germany and Wewelsburg	365
10.1	The Concentration Camps and SS: The Final Phase	366
10.2	Between Chaos and New Beginnings: The End of the War in Wewelsburg	371
11	Victims and Perpetrators after 1945	381
11.1	Life after Having Survived: The Former Prisoners	382
11.2	Society’s Treatment of the Victims and Perpetrators	395
11.3	Suppression, Denial, Glorification: Members of the SS after 1945	403
12	Wewelsburg after 1945: Between Education and Glorification	411
12.1	National Socialist History in Controversy: The Wewelsburg Example	412
12.2	Projections	417
12.3	Controversy over Public Perceptions	426
	Appendix	437
	Authors	438
	Translations of German Documents	439
	Index of Names	462
	Lenders and Archives	463
	Exhibition Credits	464