

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface to second edition	5
Preface to first edition	6

PART I. ADVERSE EFFECTS OF MATERNAL DEPRIVATION

1. Some origins of mental ill-health	11
2. Review of evidence on effects of deprivation. I : Direct studies	15
3. Review of evidence on effects of deprivation. II : Retrospective and follow-up studies	30
4. Interim conclusions	46
5. Theoretical problems	52
6. Research into effects of deprivation	59

PART II. PREVENTION OF MATERNAL DEPRIVATION

7. The purpose of the family	67
8. Causes of family failure in Western communities, with special reference to psychiatric factors	72
9. Prevention of family failure	84
10. Illegitimacy and deprivation	93
11. Substitute families. I : Adoption	101
12. Substitute families. II : Boarding-homes	109
13. Group care	129
14. Care of maladjusted and sick children	139
15. Administration of child-care services, and problems for research	150
Conclusion	157

APPENDICES

Appendix 1. Various retrospective studies relating mental illness to deprivation and broken homes	161
Appendix 2. Differences in Rorschach responses between institution children and others	166
Appendix 3. Note on Goldfarb's study of social adjustment in rela- tion to age of entry to an institution	169
Appendix 4. Note on statistics regarding causes of children being taken into care away from home	170
Bibliography	175
Name index	181
Subject index	183