

Contents

Abbreviations	xv
Note on Pronunciation	xvii
Prologue	1
I. OCEANIA OVERVIEW
1. 'Imperialism, as such, is a Newly Coined Word': Empire and Oceania	7
2. 'The Task of "Empire-Unbuilding" is a Difficult One': Decolonization	21
3. 'Britain's Withdrawal East of Suez is also a Withdrawal West of Panama'. The End in the Pacific: When, Why, and How?	34
II. HOLDING ON
4. 'A Dramatic and Liberal Gesture': Attlee's Secret Smaller Territories Enquiry, 1949–51	49
5. 'Limbo', 'Mezzanine Status', and 'Independence Minus': Self-Government within the Commonwealth	62
6. 'Something of a Profit and Loss Account': Macmillan's Audit of Empire and Aftermath, 1957–60	68
III. LETTING GO
7. 'The Cold War Front is Advancing Upon Oceania': Pressures from the United Nations, 1960–61	85
8. 'To Complete the Process of Decolonization as soon as Possible': Whitehall's Response to the UN Declaration, 1962–64	99
9. 'Coming to the Most Difficult Period of Decolonization': The Lady Margaret Hall Conference, 1965	114
10. 'A Line Would have to be Drawn Somewhere': Oceania and the Paradox of the Expanding United Nations, 1965–68	132

IV. WINDING UP

11. 'The British Empire is Past History'. Retreat from 'Never' Land Begins: Tonga and Fiji, 1970	147
12. 'Independence and Self-Government have the Same Value': Self-Determination for Niue, 1970-74	158
13. 'It is More Blessed to Go than be Pushed': The 1973 Programme Analysis and Review	164
14. 'To Encourage Australia and New Zealand to Take a Larger Share': The Anzac Role in Decolonization	175
15. 'Liquidating Colonial Arrangements with as much Speed as could be Decently Mustered'. Accelerated Decolonization: Solomon Islands	180
16. 'We Cannot Now Apply the Brakes'. Accelerated Decolonization: The Gilbert and Ellice Islands, 1975-78	197
17. 'The Most Difficult Pre-Independence Conference We have had for a Pacific Territory'. Accelerated Decolonization: Kiribati and Banaba, 1968-79	216
18. 'The Dying Art of Decolonization is Difficult to Pursue in a Condominium'. Accelerated Decolonization: New Hebrides	238
Epilogue	257
Bibliography	261
Index	269