

CONTENTS

Introduction vii

Part One: The Composer as Humanist, Mathematician, and Theologian

Messiaen's Teaching at the Paris Conservatoire:
A Humanist's Legacy
(Jean Boivin) 5

Messiaen and the Representation of the Theological Illusion
of Time
(Ian Darbyshire) 33

Part Two: Self-Restriction and Symbolism

Theological Implications of Restrictions in Messiaen's
Compositional Processes
(Roberto Fabbi) 55

Mystical Symbols of Faith: Olivier Messiaen's
Charm of Impossibilities
(Jean Marie Wu) 85

Rhythmic Technique and Symbolism in the Music of Olivier Messiaen
(Robert Sherlaw-Johnson) 121

Part Three:
Praising God with Saint Francis and the Song of Birds

- Saint Thomas Aquinas and the Theme of Truth in Messiaen's Saint François d'Assise
(Camille Crunelle Hill) 143
- Messiaen's Saint François d'Assise and Franciscan Spirituality
(Nils Holger Petersen) 169
- Magic and Enchantment in Olivier Messiaen's
Catalogue d'oiseaux
(Theo Hirsbrunner) 195

Part Four:
Poetry, Angelic Language, and Contemplations

- Messiaen and Surrealism: A Study of His Poetry
(Larry W. Peterson) 215
- Speaking with the Tongues of Men and of Angels:
Messiaen's 'langage communicable'
(Andrew Shenton) 225
- The Spiritual Layout in Messiaen's Contemplations
of the Manger
(Siglind Bruhn) 247
- The Contributors 269