

Contents

Eugenio Amato, Francesco Citti, and Bart Huelsenbeck

Law and Ethics in Greek and Roman Declamation: Current Perspectives, Future Directions — 1

Emanuele Berti

Law in Declamation: The status legales in Senecan controversiae — 7

Bart Huelsenbeck

Shared Speech in the Collection of the Elder Seneca (Contr. 10.4):
Towards a Study of Common Literary Passages as Community Interaction — 35

Pablo Schwartz

Forensic Intrusion into the Schools of Rhetoric:
A Reading of Cassius Severus' Attack on Cestius Pius — 63

Graziana Brescia

Ambiguous Silence: stuprum and pudicitia in Latin Declamation — 75

Francesco Citti

Quaedam iura non lege, sed natura*:
Nature and Natural Law in Roman Declamation — 95

Mario Lentano

Parricidii sit actio*: Killing the Father in Roman Declamation — 133

Lucia Pasetti

Cases of Poisoning in Greek and Roman Declamation — 155

Thomas Zinsmaier

Truth by Force? Torture as Evidence in Ancient Rhetoric and Roman Law — 201

Bé Breij

The Law in the Major Declamations Ascribed to Quintilian — 219

Gianluigi Tomassi

Tyrants and Tyrannicides: Between Literary Creation and Contemporary Reality in Greek Declamation — 249

Mikael Johansson

Nature over Law: Themes of Disowning in Libanius' Declamations — 269

Alberto J. Quiroga Puertas

Demosthenes' Moral and Legal Arguments in Libanius' Declamations — 287

Simona Lupi

Two Laws, Two Loves: Generational Conflict Between a Father and His Son in Choricus' Declamations 5 and 6 — 307

Contributors — 333

Index of Ancient Names — 337

Index of Modern Names — 343

General Index — 352