

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Reimagining Reference and Research Services for the Twenty-First-Century Academic Library Jennifer Bowers and Carrie Forbes	ix
Part I: Collaboration: Partnerships for Lifelong Learning	1
1 Step Away from the Desk: Re-casting the Reference Librarian as Academic Partner Michael Courtney and Angela Courtney	3
2 The Scholarly Commons: Emerging Research Services for Graduate Students and Faculty Merinda Kaye Hensley	17
Part II: Diversity: Meeting the Information Needs of a Changing Demographic	33
3 The Rainbow Connection: Reference Services for the LGBT Community in Academic Libraries Matthew P. Ciszek	35
4 Reference Services in a Shifting World: Other Languages, Other Services Valeria E. Molteni and Eileen K. Bosch	51
5 As Needs Change, So Must We: A Case Study of Innovative Outreach to Changing Demographics Li Fu	69

Part III: Technology: Reference Service Beyond the Library Walls	83
6 Roving Reference: Taking the Library to Its Users Zara Wilkinson	85
7 Connecting Questions with Answers Ellie Dworak and Carrie Moore	99
Part IV: Assessment: Does Reference Make a Difference?	115
8 Transforming Reference Services: More Than Meets the Eye Kawanna Bright, Consuella Askew, and Lori Driver	117
9 Dialogic Mapping: Evolving Reference into an Instructional Support for Graduate Research Corinne Laverty and Elizabeth A. Lee	135
10 Does the Reference Desk Still Matter?: Assessing the Desk Paradigm at the University of Washington Libraries Deb Raftus and Kathleen Collins	153
Part V: Professional Competencies: Skills for a New Generation	167
11 From Ready Reference to Research Conversations: The Role of Instruction in Academic Reference Service Melanie Maksin	169
12 Necessities of Librarianship: Competencies for a New Generation Danielle Colbert-Lewis, Jamillah Scott-Branch, and David Rachlin	185
13 Professional Competencies for the Virtual Reference Librarian: Digital Literacy, Soft Skills, and Customer Service Christine Tobias	201
14 Mediating for Digital Primary Source Research: Expanding Reference Services Peggy Keeran	211
Index	225
About the Contributors	235