

Contents

Introduction	1
ALEXANDER DHOEST, STEVEN MALLIET, BARBARA SEGAERT, AND JACQUES HAERS
1 Contextualizing the Spectacular	5
PAUL HODKINSON
PART I
Exploring New Ground
2 Nerds, Geeks, Gamers, and Fans: Doing Subculture on the Edge of the Mainstream	17
BENJAMIN WOO
3 Creative Entrepreneurship in the Cultural Industries: Rhetoric and Realities of Youth Creative Work	37
MIRANDA CAMPBELL
4 The Influence of Happenings on the Performative Display of Subcultures: Insights into the Beat, Mod, Provo, and Hipster Movements	55
STEFAN WOUTERS
5 “Fed Up with Men”: Music as Symbolic Resistance in the Flemish Lesbian and Women’s Movement	70
ROBBE HERREMAN, ALEXANDER DHOEST, AND BART EECKHOUT
6 Why Are All the Gospel Rappers Online?: The Role of Social Media Sites in Building Communities in Buffalo, New York	87
ERIKA GAULT

PART II

Revisiting Old Ground

7	Young People on the Edge: A World of Post-Subcultures and Post-Suburbs? RUPA HUQ	107
8	Club Culture in the Cultural Periphery: The Case of Estonia AIRI-ALINA ALLASTE	123
9	“Thank You for Being So Professional!”: The 1990s Club Culture as a Vehicle of Entrepreneurialism in the Post-Socialist Context ZUZANA KEPPLOVÁ	143
10	Respect for the Blood: The Hungarian “Radical Galaxy” and “National Hip Hop” ÁGNES PATAKFALVI CZIRJÁK	163
11	Communal Utopias within Nature-Based Spiritualities in the Post-Soviet Region: The Visions of an Ideal World among Vissarionites and Anastasians RASA PRANSKEVIČIŪTĖ	183
	Contributors	201
	Index	205