

CONTENTS

Foreword, John Baugh	ix
Preface: Real Talk	xiii
Shout Outs	xxvii
1. Introduction: You Know My Steez	1
2. Designing Sociolinguistic Research on Speech Style	14
3. How the Other Half Speaks: Ethnosensitivity and the Shifting Roles of the Researcher	39
4. “This Is Corporate America Takin Over”: Schooling, Survival, and the Sociohistorical Context of Life in the Occupied Territories	78
5. We Some BaaaddDDD Styleshifters: The Copula in Stylistic Variation	141
6. Our Steelo Switch Up: Third-Person Singular -s, Possessive -s, and Plural -s Absence	161
7. We Be Word Sorcerers: Invariant be and the Equative Copula in BL	173
8. It Take Two to Make a Thing Go Riiiiight: Examining Interaction in the Coconstruction of Style	191
9. The Gentrification of Speech and Speakers: Black Language in White Public Space	231
Appendix A: Example Transcript of One Semistructured Conversation	249
Appendix B: SSC Questions: Hiphopography Conversations	286
Appendix C: Coding Keys	290
References	293