

Contents

Preface x

Acknowledgments xv

PART I

1 / The Printer as American Man of Letters 3

2 / The Symbolism of Literary Alienation in the Revolutionary Age 23

3 / The Fiction of the Real American Revolution 47

4 / Slavery and Modernism 67

Coda / The Act of Thought in Virginia 85

5 / The Civil War and the Failure of Literary Mind
in America 103

6 / The Southern Exodus from Arcadia 115

PART II

7 / The Will to Art in Postbellum America 127

8 / The Spectatorial Attitude 135

Coda / The Decorum of the Writer 159

9 / The Bard and the Clerk 167

10 / The Legend of the Artist 181

11 / A Fable of Civilization 209

12 / What Survivors Do 233

13 / The Closure of History in a Postsouthern America 255