

Contents

Preface	ix
PART I
Anticipating Down Syndrome and Disability
1. Introduction Narrating and Imagining Down Syndrome and Disability	3
2. The Blind, the Deaf, and the Lame Biblical and Historical Trajectories	19
PART II
Down Syndrome and Disability in the Modern World
3. Medicalizing Down Syndrome Disability in the World of Modern Science	45
4. Deconstructing and Reconstructing Disability Late Modern Discourses	79
5. Disability in Context Feminist, Cultural, and World Religious Perspectives	117
PART III
Reimagining and Renewing Theology in Late Modernity: Enabling a Disabled World
6. Reimagining the Doctrines of Creation, Providence, and the Imago Dei Rehabilitating Down Syndrome and Disability	155

7. Renewing Ecclesiology Down Syndrome, Disability, and the Community of Those Being Redeemed	193
8. Rethinking Soteriology On Saving Down Syndrome and Disability	227
9. Resurrecting Down Syndrome and Disability Heaven and the Healing of the World	259
Epilogue	293
Notes	297
Abbreviations	339
References	341
Scripture Index	433
Name Index	436
Subject Index	442