

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction. Lyric Poetry and the Resistance to History Mark Jeffreys	ix
1. Mobilizing Forms: Lyric, Scrolling Device, and Assembly Lines in P. Inman's "nimr" Michael Golston	3
2. The View from Halicarnassus: Aristotelianism and the Rhetoric of Epideictic Song Jeffrey Walker	17
3. "All Wi Doin": Tony Harrison, Linton Kwesi Johnson, and the Cultural Work of Lyric in Postwar Britain Kevin McGuirk	49
4. History as Medium, Media as History: Louis Zukofsky's A Test of Poetry Colleen J. Hamilton	77
5. The Communal Lyric: Palimpsest in the Corpus of Susan Howe Susan Vanderborg	99
6. Ecology, Feminism, and Postmodern Lyric Subjects Dorothy M. Nielsen	127
7. The Subject in Question: Women and the Free Verse Lyric in the 1980s Allison M. Cummings	151
8. Further Notes on Marxism(s) and the Lyric Hugh Grady	179
9. Antiabsorptiveness and Contemporary American Poetry: New Principles of Pleasure Christopher Beach	201

10. Watching the Speaker Speak: Self-Observation and Self- Intransparency in Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn	215
11. A Response Marjorie Perloff	245
Index	257