

Contents

Acknowledgments	v
PART ONE Conceptual bases of test development
1 Objectives and expectations	3
2 Test usefulness: Qualities of language tests	17
3 Describing tasks: Language use in language tests	43
4 Describing language ability: Language use in language tests	61
PART TWO Language test development
5 Overview of test development	85
6 Describing, identifying, and defining	95
7 Developing a plan for the evaluation of usefulness	133
8 Identifying, allocating, and managing resources	157
9 Operationalization: Developing test tasks and blueprints	171
10 Preparing effective instructions	181
11 Scoring method	193
12 Language test administration	231
PART THREE Illustrative test development projects
Project 1 High-stakes selection and placement test for students entering a university writing program	253
Project 2 Selection/placement test for telephone company employees	285
Project 3 Syllabus-based diagnostic achievement test for students in an ESP program	291
Project 4 Exit test for students in an adult education conversation course for immigrants	298

Project 5	High-stakes ESP screening test for making hiring and training decisions	308
Project 6	Placement test for an ESL reading course	317
Project 7	Employment/placement/achievement test for immigrants in a government-funded vocational training ESL course	325
Project 8	Classroom achievement test for an introductory German course	335
Project 9	Classroom achievement test for the reading component of the Korean-English two-way bilingual immersion program	345
Project 10	Syllabus-based EFL progress test for primary school children	354
References		366
Index		371