
Contents

1
The Nature and History of Clinical Psychology	3
2
Training in Clinical Psychology	47
3
Research Methods	85
4
Conceptualizations of Human Functioning and Social Environments	125
5
Perspectives on Psychological Dysfunctions	165
6
Assessment: Scientific and Professional Concerns	205
7
Assessment of Intellectual Functioning	243
8
Assessment of Personality	289
9
Assessment of Neuropsychological Functioning	327
10
Behavioral Assessment	365

11

Intervention: Professional and Scientific Concerns 409

12

Interventions with Individuals: Psychoanalytic, Client Centered, Existential, Gestalt, and Crisis Therapies 441

13

Interventions with Individuals: Behavioral, Cognitive, and Cognitive-Behavioral Therapies 475

14

Group Interventions 515

15

Milieu and Community Interventions 555

References 595

Index 679