

Table of Contents

YFAAT WEISS
Preface . . . . .	7
SUSANNE ZEPP
Introduction. . . . .	11
MICHAEL K. SILBER
Sunshine . Hungarian Jews in a Fugue State. . . . .	17
DENIS THOUARD
Form and History: From Lukács to Szondi. . . . .	31
JOACHIM KÜPPER
My Encounter with Peter Szondi. Remarks on Theory of the Modern Drama (1880—1950) . . . . .	43
DANIEL WEIDNER
Reading the Wound. Peter Szondi's Essay on the Tragic and Walter Benjamin . . . . .	55
CHRISTOPH KÖNIG
Philological Understanding. Ethics, Method and Style in the Work of Peter Szondi . . . . .	71
GALILI SHAHAR
Eden: A Listening. Reading Celan After Szondi . . . . .	89
ANNE FLEIG
Towards a Sociology of Literature: Szondi's Theory of Bourgeois Tragedy . . . . .	105
DIETER BURDORF
What is Different is Good : Peter Szondi's Essays and Lectures on Hölderlin . . . . .	117

CLAUDIA OLK

Peter Szondi and English Drama—Shakespeare to Beckett. . . . . 127

SUSANNE ZEPP

Mallarmé in Jerusalem. Peter Szondi's Lectures on French Literature . . . . . 139

THOMAS SPARR

Peter Szondi in Jerusalem . . . . . 155

Bibliography. . . . . 163

About the Authors . . . . . 175