

Contents

1. Terra Incognita	3
1. The Course of Italian-American Relations	3
2. The Rediscovery of Italy	9
2. The Land and Its People	14
1. North and South	16
2. The Regions of Italy	22
3. The Italian Population	28
4. Social Characteristics	36
3. The Legacy of History	42
1. Glory and Humiliation	42
2. The Manner of Unification	46
3. The Parliamentary Regime	50
4. Prelude to a National Revival	55
5. The Collapse of Italian Democracy	59
4. The Legacy of Fascism: The Corporate State	65
1. The Theory and the Practice	68
2. The Institutions of the Corporate State	74
3. The Government and the Classes	83
5. The Legacy of Fascism: The Church and the Opposition	93
1. The Reconciliation with the Church	93
2. The Opposition	99
3. The Reckoning	107
6. The Second World War	112
1. The Fall of Mussolini	115
2. The Forty-five Days and the Armistice	118
3. The Governments of the South	123
4. The Partisans in the North	127
7. De Gasperi and the Triumph of Christian Democracy	133
1. The "Wind of the North"	134
2. The Coming of De Gasperi	140

3. The Peace Treaty	148
4. The Institutional Solution	152
5. Christian Democracy in Power	156
6. The Disloyal Opposition	163
8. Economic Recovery and Land Reform	171
1. The Structure of the Italian Economy	171
2. The Stages of Economic Recovery	174
3. Fiscal Reform and the Bureaucratic State	178
4. The Standard of Living	181
5. Population Pressure and Agrarian Tenure	183
6. The Progress of Land Reform	190
9. The Heirs of De Gasperi and the "Opening to the Left"	196
1. The Fall of De Gasperi	196
2. The Search for a Political Formula	201
3. The Election of 1958	205
4. The Tambroni "Adventure"	211
5. The "Opening to the Left"	215
10. Economic Expansion and Planning	219
1. Planning and the Common Market	220
2. The Role of Parastatal Enterprise	223
3. Population Shifts and Social Stresses	227
4. Unfinished Business	230
11. The Cultural "Renaissance"	236
1. Post-Crocean Social Criticism	237
2. The Universe of Neorealism	242
3. From Fantasy to Psychology in Depth	246
12. Italy in the Western Community	251
1. A European Foreign Policy	251
2. The New Political Course	256
3. The Ideological Alternatives	264
APPENDIX I: Charts and Statistics	269
APPENDIX II: Suggested Reading	276
Index	287