

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
I THE ROAD TO THE GNOSIS	1
1. On terminology	1
2. A short survey of the history of research on the Gnosis	3
a. The beginnings in the eighteenth century	3
b. The Gnosis seen as a heresy of Christianity	4
c. Widening of the prospect	4
d. Relations of the Gnosis with Judaism	5
e. Back to the Greeks	5
f. Concepts of fusion	5
g. The vision of Hans Jonas	6
h. Conclusions	6
3. The Gnosis unique and syncretistic	7
4. On constitutive elements in the Gnosis	7
5. 'Gnosticizing' elements in the Hellenic stream	8
a. Knowledge	8
b. Dualism	9
c. Élitism	10
d. Esotericism and dogmatism	12
e. The attack on reality	13
f. Two worlds	15
g. The demise of the gods	16
h. The origin of evil	18
j. Conclusion	19
6. 'Gnosticizing' elements in the oriental stream	19
a. The Iranian connection	19
b. A Babylonian connection?	20
c. The Jewish connection	20
7. Two prototypes of the Gnosis	22
a. Orphism	22
b. Mahayana Buddhism	24
c. A possible explanation	27
8. The Syrian cradle	27
Notes to chapter I	28

II	'GNOSIS': ITS SEMANTICS AND ETYMOLOGY	33
1.	The words 'gnosis' and 'gignoskein'	33
2.	Other words for knowing in Greek	34
3.	Words for 'knowing' in Homer	36
	a. Homer's use of eidenai	37
	b. Homer's use of epistasthai	41
	c. Homer's use of phronein	42
	d. Homer's use of noein	43
	e. Homer's use of gignoskein	45
	f. Distinction	46
	g. Discernment	47
	h. Recognition	48
	j. Conclusions	53
4.	Homer and the Greek mind	55
5.	Words for 'knowing' in Hesiod	56
6.	'Know yourself'	57
7.	Words for 'knowing' in some lyric poets	58
	a. Archilochus	58
	b. Solon	58
	c. Pindar	59
8.	Words for 'knowledge' in the Tragedians	60
	a. Aeschylus	60
	b. Sophocles	61
	c. Euripides	62
9.	Knowledge and the Hellenistic poets	64
10.	Words for 'knowledge' in historians and doctors	64
11.	A tentative conclusion	68
12.	A meagre harvest in the early Presocratics	69
13.	Occurrences in later Presocratics	69
	a. First occurrence of 'gnosis' in Heraclitus	69
	b. Parmenides and knowledge	70
	c. Knowledge in other philosophical texts	71
	d. Gnosis and the practical tribe of the Sophists	71
	e. The Pythagoreans	72
14.	The 'gnosticizing' of Plato	72
15.	Knowledge in Aristotle	74
16.	Among the successors of Plato	75
17.	Conclusion	77
	Notes to Chapter II	77

III	DUALISM IN GNOSTIC SYSTEMS IN SAMARIA, SYRIA, AND ASIA MINOR (until A.D. 130)	86
1.	Simon Magus	86
	a. The man	86
	b. His spiritual background	88
	c. The divinization of Simon	89
	d. The role of Helena	90
	e. The Simonian Book of Revelation	92
	f. The Boundless Power	93
	g. The two roots	95
	h. The Father	95
	i. Inclusiveness	96
	j. The seeds of dualism	97
	k. The function of Epinoia	97
	l. The cosmos and mankind	98
	m. A recapitulation	98
	n. The Redeemer	99
	o. Simonian antinomianism	99
2.	Menander	101
3.	Saturnilos	102
4.	Cerinthus	104
5.	The Gnosis of the Pseudo-Clementina	106
	a. On the text	106
	b. On the Spirit of Truth	107
	c. The spiritual Christ	107
	d. Two opposed worlds	108
	e. The problem of evil	109
	f. The male-female duality	113
6.	The Carpocratians	114
	a. The name of the sect	114
	b. Who was the founder?	114
	c. Carpocrates	115
	d. The supreme godhead	115
	e. The negative powers	115
	f. The hopeless situation of mankind and Jesus the Redeemer	116
	g. The return to heaven	117
	h. The 'gnosis monadikê'	118
	j. Epiphanes' 'On Justice'	119
	k. The adherents	120
	Notes to Chapter III	121

IV	ANTAGONISTIC, DUALISTIC, AND Gnosticizing ELEMENTS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT	129
1.	On the New Testament in general and its authors	129
2.	The New Testament as history	131
3.	The homogeneity of the New Testament	132
	a. Its historicity as an expression of its homogeneity	132
	b. Its homogeneity expressed as pleroma	133
	c. Its homogeneity expressed by the terms 'Son of God' and 'Son of Man'	134
4.	Dualistic tendencies that are not be found in the New Testament	134
	a. The failing ethical distinction	134
	b. 'Two powers in Heaven'?	135
	c. Jesus and the Samaritans	136
	d. No hard feelings towards the Romans	137
	e. No antagonism towards the Gentiles	139
	f. No two sets of human beings in Jesus' preaching	141
	g. No negative attitude to women and sexuality in the New Testament	142
5.	Antagonistic or dualistic attitudes in the New Testament	145
	a. Two sets of people in John	145
	b. John as an author with a penchant to dualism	148
	c. Two sets of people in Revelation	150
	d. A pointe against politics	150
	e. Enmity towards the Romans in Revelation	152
	f. An eschatological element in the idea of the Kingdom	153
	g. Jesus and the Pharisees	155
	h. Paul and the Law	162
	j. Tension in the early Church	165
	k. The Jews in the judgment of Paul and the Gospels	167
	l. Jewish enmity towards the Christians	171
	m. A curse on the 'minim'	175
	n. The Christians seen as sectarians	176
6.	Gnosticizing tendencies in the New Testament	177
	a. The word 'gnosis' in the New Testament	178
	b. Paul and the mysteries	180
	c. The Messiah motif	181
	d. The Law given by angels	182
	e. The contrast between flesh and spirit	182
	f. The use of the term 'aeon'	183
	g. The use of the term 'archoon'	184
7.	The anti-Gnostic stance of the New Testament	185

a.	The attitude of Peter and Paul with regard to the Gnosis	185
b.	John and the Gnosis	186
c.	Conclusion	189
	Notes to Chapter IV	189
V	THE DUALISM OF THE ESSENES	201
1.	On the road to Qumran	201
2.	The site of Qumran	202
3.	The discovery	202
4.	The scrolls on sale	203
5.	The scrolls inspected	204
6.	The site inspected	206
7.	The deposits	207
8.	The Essenes and the Qumran Community	208
a.	The Essenes mentioned by ancient authors	208
b.	The discovery of the Qumran settlement	209
c.	The history of the Qumran community	209
d.	Who were the Essenes and how to become one	210
e.	The Essenian way of life	212
f.	Essenian misogyny	213
g.	The Essenes and the Temple cult	213
h.	Purity and impurity	214
9.	Essenian dualism	216
a.	The dualism of the Community Rule	217
b.	The doctrine of the Two Spirits	219
c.	The Sons of Zadok	221
d.	The Rule's dualism summarized	222
e.	The provenance of the Damascus Rule	223
f.	The New Covenant	223
g.	A new beginning	224
h.	The Essenes and political power	225
j.	The Kittim	226
k.	The self-expression of the Teacher of Righteousness	227
l.	What others say of the Teacher	229
m.	What we know of the Teacher	230
n.	The Prophet of Lies	231
o.	The eschatological war against the Kittim	235
p.	The Essenes' notion of God	239
q.	The personal dualism of the Essenes	241
r.	Types of dualism	242
	Notes to Chapter V	244

VI ON THE TALMUD AND EARLY JEWISH MYSTICISM

1.	On the Talmud as such	256
	a. The composition of the Talmud	256
	b. The origin of the Talmud	257
2.	The Talmud not a dualistic work	258
3.	The Jewish-Christian relationship	259
	a. Why Jesus does not occur in the Talmud	259
	b. Once again, who are the minim?	260
	c. The Jewish reproach	261
	d. No intercourse between Jews and Christians	262
4.	The Talmud and the Gnosis	262
5.	Shades of ethical dualism	264
6.	The formalism of the Halahkah	266
7.	Jewish apocalypses	267
8.	Jewish mysticism	268
	a. Asceticism	268
	b. What is Jewish mysticism?	269
	c. The mystic notion of God	270
	d. Angelic mediation	271
	e. Merkabah mysticism	271
	f. The Book of Enoch	273
	Notes to Chapter VI	278
	Bibliography	283
	General index	299