

Table of Contents

Introduction	vii
Richard D. Lambert and Elana Shohamy
1. Language Practice, Language Ideology, and Language Policy	1
Bernard Spolsky and Elana Shohamy
2. The Status Agenda in Corpus Planning	43
Joshua A. Fishman
3. The Way Ahead: European Recommendations for Language Teaching Policy Development into the Next Century	53
J. L. M. Trim
4. The Winds of Change in Foreign Language Instruction	81
Richard D. Lambert
5. Foreign Language and Area Studies through Title VI: Assessing Supply and Demand	93
Gilbert W. Merckx
6. System III: The Future of Language Learning in the United States	111
Richard D. Brecht and A. Ronald Walton
7. An Early Start for Foreign Languages (but Not English) in the Netherlands	129
Kees de Bot
8. Elementary School Immersion in Less Commonly Taught Languages	139
Myriam Met
9. Forging a Link: Tapping the National Heritage Language Resources in The United States	161
Xueying Wang

10. Focus on Form in Task-Based Language Teaching Michael H. Long	179
11. Language Learning and Intercultural Competence Ross Steele	193
12. Acquired Culture in the Japanese Language Classroom Eleanor H. Jordan	207
13. Performed Culture: Learning to Participate in Another Culture Galal Walker	221
14. What Do They Do?: Activities of Students during Study Abroad Ralph B. Ginsberg and Laura Miller	237
Contributors	261
Subject Index	267