

Contents

Preface: how to use this book	IX
1 Introduction – linguistic and other approaches to language	1
1.1 Orientation	1
1.2 Demonstration/discussion	8
1.3 Problems and challenges	13
1.4 Practice	17
2 Phonetics and phonology – the sounds of speech	21
2.1 Orientation	21
2.1.1 Sounds and letters: the need for a phonetic alphabet	21
2.1.2 Sounds as sounds, and sounds as elements of linguistic systems: from phonetics to phonology	23
2.1.3 Stress, pitch, intonation – phonetics and phonology beyond the individual sound	28
2.2 Demonstration/discussion	30
2.3 Problems and challenges	34
2.4 Practice	37
3 Morphology and word-formation – the structure of the word . . .	39
3.1 Orientation	39
3.1.1 Free and bound morphemes	39
3.1.2 Lexical and grammatical morphemes	43
3.2 Demonstration/discussion: The major word formation strategies of present-day English	44
3.3 Problems and challenges	50
3.4 Practice	54
4 Syntax I/general principles – the structure of the clause	57
4.1 Orientation	57
4.1.1 Words, phrases, clauses and sentences	57
4.1.2 Form categories and their grammatical functions	61
4.2 Demonstration/discussion	63
4.2.1 Basic strategies for the expression of grammatical relations	63
4.2.2 Typological classification of languages	67
4.3 Problems and challenges	68
4.4 Practice	71

5	Syntax II/the fundamentals of English grammar	73
5.1	Orientation	73
5.1.1	Parts of speech	73
5.1.2	Phrases	75
5.1.3	The seven basic clause patterns	77
5.2	Demonstration/discussion	79
5.3	Problems and challenges	81
5.4	Practice	85
6	Semantics and lexicology – the meaning of words	89
6.1	Orientation	89
6.2	Demonstration/discussion	94
6.3	Problems and challenges	99
6.4	Practice	104
7	Pragmatics and discourse analysis	109
7.1	Orientation	109
7.2	Demonstration/discussion	119
7.3	Problems and challenges	121
7.4	Practice	125
8	Applied linguistics, language teaching and translation studies ..	127
8.1	Orientation	127
8.2	Demonstration/discussion	128
8.3	Problems and challenges	134
8.4	Practice	138
9	A pluricentric language – standard Englishes around the world	141
9.1	Orientation	141
9.2	Demonstration/discussion	145
9.3	Problems and challenges	151
9.4	Practice	157
10	Dialectology – regional variation in English	159
10.1	Orientation	159
10.2	Demonstration/discussion	160
10.3	Problems and challenges	165
10.4	Practice	167
11	Language in the city – social and ethnic variation, multilingualism	171
11.1	Orientation	171
11.2	Demonstration/discussion	172

11.3 Problems and challenges	176
11.4 Practice	183
12 Language change and the history of English	187
12.1 Orientation	187
12.1.1 Old English period (c. 500–c. 1100)	190
12.1.2 Middle English period (c. 1100–c. 1500)	192
12.1.3 Early Modern English period (c. 1500–c. 1750)	193
12.1.4 Modern English period (since c. 1750)	195
12.2 Demonstration/discussion	195
12.3 Problems and challenges	199
12.4 Practice	203
13 Past masters, current trends – theorising linguistics for students of English	207
13.1 Orientation	207
13.2 Demonstration/discussion	208
13.3 Problems and challenges	217
13.4 Practice	220
14 Linguistics and the public – language myths, language politics, language planning and language rights.	223
14.1 Orientation	223
14.2 Demonstration/discussion	227
14.3 Problems and challenges	229
14.4 Practice	237
Glossary	241
Index	259