

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	9
I. THE ABOLITION OF PUBLIC PAYMENTS TO OFFICIALS IN 411/10 B.C.	13
II. THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY IN 403/2 B.C. AND THE ALLEDGED ADOPTION OF THE OLIGARCHIC POLICY: NO PAY TO OFFICIALS	34
III. THE ATHENAION POLITEIA: ITS RELATION TO THE QUESTION OF REMUNERATION	57
1) The information Value of the Athenaion Politeia, 62,2 and 42,3	60
2) The Payment Terminology of the Athenaion Politeia, 62,2 and 42,3	67
IV. THE EVIDENCE OF FOURTH CENTURY PAMPHLETEERS	88
V. THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC STATUS OF THE ATHENIAN OFFICIALS	109
1) The Socio-Economic Status of the Athenian Officials: the Word of the Law Versus Common Practice	111
2) The Position of 'Offices' in the Financial Organization of the Athenian Society	119
VI. CONCLUSION	146
APPENDIXES
I. A Reconstruction of the Major Political Events after the Fall of the Thirty	150
II. The Relationship between the terms misthós, eis trofén and eis sitesin	151
BIBLIOGRAPHY	156
INDEX	161