

Contents

Author's Note	xi
Maps	xiii
Introduction	1
Notes	15
1 Early Popes	23
Before Clement: Boniface VIII, Philip the Fair, and Rome	24
Clement V: French Puppet or Able Diplomat?	32
The Past Catching Up: Boniface and the Templars	33
Why Not Return to Rome?	40
Centralization: John XXII	44
Satanic Beginnings	46
The Franciscan Poverty Debate and Its European Implication	48
Beatific Vision	54
Monasticization: Benedict XII	56
Staying in Avignon	59
Notes	62
2 Papal Monarchy	69
How to Be Pope: The Papal Monarchy of Clement VI	70
Clement VI and Rome: Cola di Rienzo	74
Clement VI and Joanna of Naples	75
Clement VI and Italy: Milan and Louis of Bavaria	78
Clement VI: Arbiter of the Hundred Years' War	79
The Arrival of the Black Death	82
Clement VI: The Humanist	84
Lawyer and Conqueror: Innocent VI	86
The Lands of St. Peter	89
The Hundred Years' War: Poitiers and Its Aftermath	93
The Free Companies in Provence	98
Holy Roman Empire	102
Notes	104

3	Returning to Rome	109
	Urban V	110
	A Fastidious Man	112
	How to Eliminate the Free Companies	115
	The Emperor's Visit	117
	The Castilian Situation	119
	Returning to Rome	121
	The Last of the Avignon Popes: Gregory XI	128
	Florence and the Pope: Toward the Break	130
	Florence and the Pope at War	133
	The Interdict	138
	Returning to Rome	140
	Notes	146
4	Constructing the Administration: Governance and Personnel	149
	Governance and Finance: Avignon	154
	Apostolic Chamber	155
	Chancery	165
	Penitentiary and Rota	167
	The Pope's Household	169
	The Administration's Mark on Avignon	176
	Cardinals	179
	Notes	185
5	Avignon: The Capital and Its Population	189
	Avignon's Governance and Administration	191
	Citizens and Courtiers	194
	Avignon's Urban Landscape	199
	Avignon's Parishes and Their Social Topography	207
	To Live in a Medieval Capital City	228
	Notes	234
6	The Great Western Schism and Avignon	239
	Why a Schism?	240
	The Early Years	249
	Continuation	260
	Toward a Solution	269
	Effects and Results	273
	Notes	283

Conclusion	287
Notes	291
Additional Bibliography	293
1: Early Popes	293
2: Papal Monarchy	297
3: Returning to Rome	300
4: Constructing the Administration	302
5: Avignon: The Capital and Its Population	304
6: The Great Western Schism and Avignon	305
Index	307