

Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	xv
A NOTE ON REFERENCES	xvi
INTRODUCTION	I
I. THE RISE TO FAME
1. The Professional Author	9
2. Sketches by Boz and Macrone	28
3. Pickwick Papers and the Development of Serial Fiction	45
4. Dickens and the Burlington Street Brigand	75
5. 'The Best of Booksellers Past, Present, or to Come'	88
II. THE ANXIOUS FORTIES
6. Master Humphrey's Clock : 'wind, wind, wind'	105
7. Trouble in Eden: American Notes and Martin Chuzzlewit	119
8. The Break	139
III. FORTUNE WITH FAME
9. With Bradbury and Evans	159
10. Dombey and Son , 'the greatest success'	182
11. David Copperfield and the Cheap Edition	198
12. Bleak House and the Literary Croesus	215
13. Working the Copyrights	236
IV. MAN OF THE WORLD
14. Return to Chapman and Hall	267
15. 'The End'	295
16. The Audience Widens	326

APPENDICES

Introduction	345
A. Sales and Profits of Dickens's Works, 1846-70	349
B. The Printing History of Dickens's Monthly Serials, 1846-70	417
C. Income from Dickens's Works for Dickens, Bradbury and Evans, and Chapman and Hall, 1846-70	458
D. Income from Household Words and All the Year Round	462
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	465
INDEX	485