

CONTENTS

Preface	xv
I PHILO BETWEEN JEWISH ORTHODOXY AND HELLENISTIC PHILOSOPHY	1
1. Alexandria, the Jewish metropole	1
2. What is known of Philo's life	2
3. Philo's writings	3
4. Philo and the Old Testament	5
5. Philo's idea of God	6
6. Philo's idea of the immutability of God	8
7. The encounter of Judaism with Hellenism	10
8. Philo as an unbiblical prophet	11
9. God transcending all knowledge	12
10. The problem of creation	14
11. The role of the intermediaries	14
a. The intelligible world	14
b. The Logos	15
c. Monad and Dyad	17
d. The Ideas	18
e. Angels and logoi	18
f. The Powers	19
g. Why Philo needed so many intermediaries	19
12. Order and disorder	20
13. Philo's abhorrence of the material world	21
14. The Man of God	21
15. Philo's anthropology	23
16. The role of wisdom	25
17. Philo's attitude towards women	26
18. Philonic doctrine and the Gnosis	26
a. A provisional summary	26
b. The origin of evil	27
c. An ambivalent idea of the cosmos	28
d. The Man of God and the first Man	28
e. Élitism	29
f. The basic dualism	29

g.	The significance of knowledge and wisdom	29
h.	How Gnostic was Philo?	33
19.	Conclusion	34
20.	The pseudo-Aristotelian treatise 'On the World'	35
	Notes to Chapter 1	37
II	HERMETIC SECRETS	45
1.	On hermetic scripture in general	45
2.	The mental landscape of hermetic literature	46
a.	The demise of rationalism	46
b.	The reassertion of the East	47
c.	Another idea of the divine	47
3.	Hermes and Toth	49
4.	Hermes and the hermetic writings	50
5.	What hermetic writings are about	51
6.	The composition and the character of the Corpus Hermeticum	52
7.	The optimistic line	52
8.	Some shorter pessimistic passages	54
9.	The 'Poimandres'	55
a.	The introduction	55
b.	God and matter	56
c.	The origination of nature	58
d.	The function of the Logos	58
e.	The Powers	59
f.	The Demiurge and the Governors	59
g.	The imprisonment of the Logos	60
h.	Two cosmological architects	61
j.	The screening off of God	62
k.	The role of the 'Will of God'	62
l.	The cosmological function of the planets	63
m.	The role of Man	64
n.	Anthropology	65
o.	Humanity divided	67
p.	The ascent of the soul	68
q.	Preaching the message	69
10.	The World Girl	69
a.	The general character of the tract	69
b.	The celestial bodies	70
c.	Knowledge and Ignorance	71
d.	The optimistic creation story	71
e.	The pessimistic creation story	72

f.	Man as a 'Fremdkörper'	72
g.	The possibility of redemption	74
h.	The destruction of the earth	74
j.	The saviours	75
k.	The tract's main theme	75
l.	Optimism and pessimism	76
m.	Is the Korê a Gnostic treatise?	76
n.	The dualistic elements in the Korê	77
	Notes to Chapter II	77
III	A LIBRARY IN A JAR	85
1.	The site	85
2.	The discovery	86
3.	The Library	86
4.	The precarious vicissitudes of the Library	87
5.	Authors, translators, and librarians	88
6.	Why the collection was made	90
7.	Why the collection was stored away	90
8.	How the collection is composed	91
	Notes to Chapter III	92
IV	SETH'S PROGENCY	94
1.	Did there exist a Sethian sect?	94
2.	Did the sect exist in Egypt or elsewhere?	95
3.	The extent of the sect	96
4.	Seth, the ancestor of the sect	96
5.	Cain, Abel, Seth	97
6.	The nature of the Sethian texts	98
7.	A threepartite universe	99
a.	The three roots	99
b.	Darkness's jealousy	100
c.	The saving of the Spirit	101
d.	The dualism of the lower and higher worlds	101
8.	Sethian cosmogony	102
9.	The creation of man	103
a.	The report of the Paraphrase of Shem	104
b.	Hippolytus' account	104
c.	The story as told in 'The Apocalypse of Adam'	105
10.	The unhappy brothers	107
a.	What Pseudotertullian has to say	107

b.	Epiphanius on Cain and Abel	107
c.	The relation in 'The Gospel of the Egyptians'	108
11.	Seth the Redeemer	110
12.	The role of knowledge	111
13.	The Sethian attack on the Bible and Judaism	113
14.	The attack on the New Testament	115
15.	The rejection of the world	116
16.	The end of the world	117
17.	The ascent of the soul	117
18.	The Archontics	118
a.	The godhead	120
b.	The heavens	120
c.	Sabaoth	120
d.	Cain and Abel	121
e.	Seth	122
f.	The Archontics and Christianity	123
	Notes to Chapter IV	124
V	THE SERPENT AND ITS RETINUE: THE OPHITES AND RELATED SECTS	134
1.	Which sects may be called 'Ophitic'?	134
2.	The veneration of the snake	135
3.	About the Ophites in general	135
4.	The snake as the sect's patron	136
5.	Ophites, Naassenes, and Gnostikoi	137
6.	Trinity and quaternity of first principles	137
7.	The First Woman and Christ	138
8.	The downward course of the light and its escape	139
9.	Jaldabaoth	140
10.	The snake	141
11.	Jaldabaoth-Jahve and the creation of man	142
12.	The revenge of Jaldabaoth	143
13.	Humanity at risk	144
14.	The race of Cain and the race of Seth	144
15.	The Ophites and the biblical heritage	145
16.	Christ and Jesus	146
17.	Dualism galore	148
18.	The Ophians	148
a.	The Ophian diagram	148
b.	Gnosis and dualism in the Ophian system	151
c.	Salvation	152

19.	Gnostic antinomianism: those of Cain	153
	a. Antinomianism	153
	b. The Cainite doctrine	155
20.	Gnostic antinomianism: those of Nicolas	156
	a. Nicolas and Nicolaites	156
	b. The bad reputation of the Nicolaites	156
	c. Nicolaite doctrine	158
21.	The Peratae, the 'crossers'	159
	a. About the sect itself and its name	159
	b. The three-rooted universe	160
	c. The shaping of matter	161
	d. The Fall	162
	e. Anthropology	163
	f. The Saviour	163
	g. The rejection of the doomed	164
22.	Justin's Baruch-book	165
	a. The author and his book	165
	b. The three powers	165
	c. The angels	166
	d. The creation of Adam and Eve	167
	e. Elohim deserts Eden	167
	f. Eden's revenge	167
	g. Baruch the Redeemer	168
	h. The secret mysteries	170
23.	The Severians	171
	Notes to Chapter V	172
VI	THOSE OF BARBELO	181
1.	What are Barbelo-Gnostics?	181
2.	What Epiphanius had to report about the Barbelo-Gnostics	182
3.	Barbelo-Gnostic scripture	182
4.	What Barbelo-Gnostic doctrine explains	183
5.	The highest principle	183
6.	Barbelo	184
7.	Christ	185
8.	Cosmogony	187
	a. Adamas	187
	b. Sophia's wilful acting	188
	c. Jaltabaoth the Demiurge	189
	d. Jaltabaoth's cosmogonic activities	190
	e. Sophia repents what she has done	191

f.	The creation of Adam	191
g.	The Pneuma	193
h.	The second Fall	194
j.	Redemption	195
k.	The counter-offensive	195
l.	The fallen state	196
m.	Eloim and Yave	197
n.	The origin of Seth	198
o.	A promise	198
p.	The destiny of the souls	200
q.	A bad, bad world	200
r.	The Saviour	202
s.	Dualism	202
9.	Other Barbelo-Gnostic sects	203
a.	Which sects there were	203
b.	The role of Barbelo	204
c.	The two spheres	204
d.	The two battling forces	205
e.	Libertinism	206
	Notes to Chapter V	209

VII THE BASILIDIANS 213

1.	Basilides and his work	213
2.	The heresiologues on Basilides	214
3.	What remains of Basilides' writings	215
4.	The report of Irenaeus	217
a.	The Pleroma	217
b.	The heavens	218
c.	The world	218
d.	The God of the Jews	219
e.	Christ	219
f.	'Those who know'	220
g.	Conclusions	221
5.	The Hippolytan version	222
a.	Rootless nature	222
b.	God the cause of this world?	223
c.	The world-seed	223
d.	The threefold Sonship and the Spirit	224
e.	Two worlds	224
f.	The Great Ruler of the Cosmos	225
g.	The Son of the Demiurge	225

h.	The lower archons	226
j.	The third Sonship and his Gospel	226
k.	The fate of the world	228
l.	Some conclusions	228
6.	The Basilidian community	230
	Notes to Chapter VIII	230

VIII THE VALENTINIANS 235

1.	The founder	235
2.	The literary output of Valentinus	236
3.	What Valentinus intended to do	238
4.	The first stage: the Gospel of Truth	238
a.	The necessity of Knowledge	238
b.	The Father and the Son	239
c.	The aeons	239
d.	Error	240
e.	What is wrong with the world	241
f.	Jesus the Christ	242
g.	The 'book'	242
h.	Sleep and awakening	243
j.	The true nature of Jesus	244
k.	The Gospel of Truth as a Gnostic tract	245
5.	Vintage Valentinianism	246
a.	The Depth	246
b.	Ennoia	247
c.	Emanation	248
d.	The Pleroma	249
e.	All the aeons	250
f.	The Fall	251
g.	Matter	253
h.	Uproar in the Pleroma	253
j.	Jesus, the joint fruit of the Pleroma	254
k.	Esoteric knowledge	255
l.	Sophia's offspring	255
m.	A glimmer of hope	257
n.	The Saviour	257
o.	Substances and bodies	258
p.	The Demiurge	259
q.	The creation of man	260
r.	Christ and Jesus	262
6.	A different view of the Demiurge and his work	267

7.	Heracleon's view	269
8.	The Tripartite Tractate	273
	a. The Father, the Son, and the Church	273
	b. The Logos	274
	c. The lower sphere	275
	d. The Logos, the Demiurge, and the world	276
	e. The creation of man	277
	f. A confusing moral perspective	278
	g. The Saviour	280
	h. The fate of mankind	281
	j. The Redeemer redeemed	282
	k. Christ all in all	282
	l. The Tripartite Tract and its relation to Christianity	283
9.	The extent of Valentinianism	284
	Notes to Chapter VIII

IX GNOSTIC POLEMICS AGAINST JUDAISM AND CHRISTIANITY 296

1.	Were the earliest Fathers of the Church 'heresy-hunters'?	296
2.	Gnostic syncretism	297
3.	Gnostic polemizing	298
	a. The anti-Jewish attitude of the Gnostics	298
	b. Anti-Christian polemizing	299
	Notes to Chapter IX	300

Graphs of Gnostic systems 303

I	Simonianism	303
II	Menander's system	304
III	System of Saturnilos	305
IV	System of Cerinthus	306
V	System of the Pseudoclementina	307
VI	The Carpocratian system	308
VII	The Sethian system	309
VIII	The Archontic system	310
IX	The Ophitic system	311
X	The Barbelo-Gnostic system	312
XI	The system of de Gospel of Truth	313
XII	Vintage Valentinianism	314

XIII	The Tripartite system	315
XIV	The system of Basilides (in the version of Irenaeus)	316
XV	The system of Basilides (in the version of Hippolytus)	317
	Bibliography	319
	General Index	331