

Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	xiii
ABBREVIATIONS AND A NOTE ON EDITORIAL PRACTICE	xv
introduction	i
A. The Diaries and Ruskin Scholarship	2
1. The discovery of the diaries. 2. The destruction of the Ruskin-La Touche papers. 3. Views of Ruskin's relationship with Rose.
B. Background to the Diary of 1861	23
1. The beginnings of Ruskin's friendship with the La Touches. 2. Mrs. La Touche and Ruskin; the La Touche tour of March 1861.
C. Background to the Diary of 1867	49
1. Ruskin's visit to Harristown in August 1861: his promise to Mrs. La Touche. 2. Events from September 1861 through June 1862: the beginning of Rose's illness; her letters to Ruskin; the La Touches' break with Ruskin. 3. Events from July 1862 through December 1863: Rose and the higher Biblical criticism; Ruskin's isolation at Mornex; the baptism of John La Touche; Rose's collapse after her first Communion. 4. Events from January 1864 through January 1867: Ruskin's interest in spiritualism; the restlessness of Mrs. La Touche; Ruskin's proposal of marriage to Rose in February 1866; the alarm of the La Touches.
D. Epilogue	107
1. The La Touches and Effie Millais; later meetings between Ruskin and Rose; her death in 1875. 2. The spiritualization of Rose.
THE DIARIES OF ROSE LA TOUCHE
I. JOURNAL OF TRAVELS IN FRANCE AND ITALY Diary for 7 March-1 April 1861	143
II. ROSE LA TOUCHE'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY Diary for 1 January-24 February 1867	151
INDEX	183