

Contents

Preface	9
Guide to Dates and Volume Numbers of the Critical Review Frequently Cited in This Study	12
1 Grand Designs: Smollett's Plan for an English Academy and the Birth of the Critical Review	17
2 The Young Pretender: Smollett's Challenge to Johnson and Others	29
3 The Man of Letters as Review Editor: Problems and Policies	39
4 A New Critical Vehicle: Smollett's Technique as Book Reviewer	65
5 The Republic of Letters: Smollett's Writings on Literature and History in 1756	88
6 "His Several Provinces": Smollett on Art, Science, and Politics	110
7 "Tied Down to the Stake": Smollett as Editor and Reviewer from 1757 to 1763	131
8 "These Self-Elected Monarchs": The Impact of the Critical Review on the Literary World	164
9 Before Its Time: Smollett's Innovative British Magazine	188
10 "Who Killed John Keats?": Smollett and the New Critical Establishment	211
Appendixes:
A A List of Smollett's Articles in the Critical Review 1756–1767 and the Evidence for Their Attribution	220
B A List of Published Attacks on the Critical Review from 1756 to 1771	279

C A Table of British Magazine Articles by Smollett, Johnson,
Goldsmith, Garrick, and Richardson

Notes

Bibliography

Index