

Contents

| | page |
|---|-------------|
| PREFACE | ix |
| INTRODUCTION | 1 |
| 1. SWIFT AND THE IDEA OF AUTHORITY. PAT ROGERS, Fellow of Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge and University Assistant Lecturer in English | 25 |
| 2. 'AN INVERTED HYPOCRITE': SWIFT THE CHURCHMAN. BASIL HALL, Professor of Ecclesiastical History, Manchester University | 38 |
| 3. FROM PRINCIPLES TO PRACTICE: SWIFT AND PARTY POLITICS. W. A. SPECK, Lecturer in History, University of Newcastle- on-Tyne | 69 |
| 4. SWIFT AND THE BACONIAN IDOL. BRIAN VICKERS, Fellow of Downing College, Cambridge, and University Assistant Lecturer in English | 87 |
| 5. IRONY AND THE ENGLISH TONGUE. HUGH SYKES DAVIES, Fellow of St. John's College, Cam- bridge, and University Lecturer in English | 129 |
| 6. SWIFT'S USE OF IRONY. HERBERT DAVIS, Emeritus Professor of Bibliography, the University of Oxford | 154 |
| 7. SWIFT'S FALLEN CITY: A Description of the Morning . ROGER SAVAGE, Lecturer in English, University of Edin- burgh | 171 |
| 8. JONATHAN SWIFT: THE POETRY OF 'REACTION'. GEOFFREY HILL, Lecturer in English, Leeds University | 195 |
| 9. SWIFT AND THE COMEDY OF EVIL. IRVIN EHRENPREIS, Professor of English, University of Virginia | 213 |
| 10. THE SOCIAL CIRCUMSTANCES OF CERTAIN REMOTE NATIONS. ANGUS ROSS, Senior Lecturer in English, University of Sussex | 220 |

11. THE SATIRIC STRUCTURE OF Gulliver's Travels and MORE'S
Utopia. 233
BRIAN VICKERS
12. DEAN OF ST. PATRICK'S: A VIEW FROM THE Letters.
JOHN HOLLOWAY, Fellow of Queens' College, Cambridge, and Reader in Modern English 258
- INDEX 269