

Contents

Preface
ELIZABETH R. PRICHARD		xi
 Part I. Introduction
1. The Social Worker's Role
LEON H. GINSBERG		3
2. The Expression of Grief as Deviant Behavior in American Culture
GARY A. LLOYD		12
 Part II. The Family and Death
3. Stress in Family Interaction When a Member Is Dying
BEN A. ORCUTT		23
4. Helping Families Cope with Acute and Anticipatory Grief
HILDA C. M. ARNDT and MITTIE GRUBER		38
5. Evaluation of Family Care in Terminal Illness
C. MURRAY PARKES		49
6. Clinical Observations on Bereaved Individuals
DELIA BATTIN, IRWIN GERBER, ALFRED WIENER, and ARTHUR ARKIN		80

viii CONTENTS

7. Competence or Crisis: The Social Work Role in Maintaining Family Competency during the Dying Period MARION WIJNBERG and MARY C. SCHWARTZ	97
Part III. Facing Death in Childhood, Adolescence, Middle Age and Old Age
8. Bereavement in Childhood ERNA FURMAN	115
9. The Dying Child and His Family GRACE FIELDS	124
10. Adolescents and Death RACHEL RUSTOW AUBREY	131
11. The Losses of Middle Age and Related Developmental Tasks MARY K. PARENT	146
12. Social Work with Geriatric Patients and Their Families JORDAN I. KOSBERG	155
Part IV. Interdisciplinary Resources in the Community
13. Home Care for the Terminal Patient and His Family BARBARA McNULTY	171
14. The Social Worker and Terminal Illness JEAN MARKHAM and SYLVIA LACK	180
15. Effective Nursing Home Placement for the Elderly Dying Patient LEE H. SUSZYCKI	185
16. Program Development for Problems Associated with Death SHAROL CANNON	198
17. When Should the Clergyman Be Called? JOHN FREUND	208

18. Cultural Perspectives on Death as Viewed from within a Selected Nursing Facility LARRY LISTER	216
---	-----

Part V. Therapeutic Approaches and Concepts

19. Talking About the Unmentionable PHYLLIS MERVIS	233
20. Group Therapy with Advanced Cancer Patients: What Are the Issues? CLELIA P. GOODYEAR	242
21. Developing New Norms for Parents of Fatally Ill Children to Facilitate Coping RUTH R. BOYD	251
22. Bereavement as a Normal Life Transition PHYLLIS R. SILVERMAN	266
23. Private Troubles or Public Issues: Explorations in the Policy Implications of Euthanasia BURTON GUMMER and DIANE M. SIMPSON	274

Part VI. The Education of the Social Worker

24. Teaching Death and Dying Content in the Social Work Curriculum ROSALIND S. MILLER	289
25. Teaching a Social Work Perspective on the Dying Patient and His Family EDA C. GOLDSTEIN	301
26. Helping the Social Work Student Deal with Death and Dying HELEN CASSIDY	313
27. The Dying Professor as Death Educator LOIS JAFFE	323
Index Compiled by Lucia Bove	345