

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements . . . . .	12
Introduction – Dr. A. Raviv . . . . .	14
Preface: The American Reviewing Committee. . . . .	16
Part One: The Development of the Concepts of Death Among Children . . . . .	19
Chapter 1: Children’s Confrontation with Death . . . . .	19
Chapter 2: The Significance of Preventive Aid to Children on the Subject of Death . . . . .	23
Chapter 3: The Place of the Teacher in Rendering Preventive Aid . . . . .	25
Chapter 4: The Central Aspects in the Concepts of Death . . . . .	27
A. The Irreversibility of Death . . . . .
B. The Finality of Death . . . . .
C. The Causality of Death . . . . .
D. The Inevitability of Death . . . . .
E. Old Age . . . . .
Chapter 5: Development of the Concepts of Death – a Survey of the Literature . . . . .	32
Chapter 6: Development of the Concepts of Death among Israeli Children – Research Findings . . . . .	36
A. Development of the Concepts of Death with Regard to Animals and Humans, among Children from Pre-school Age to Fourth Grade . . . . .	37
B. Comparison Between two Groups of Children Based on the Level of their Parents’ Education (see also graph I, page 234). . . . .	38

C.	Development of the Concept of Irreversibility from Pre-kindergarten Age to Fourth Grade (see also graph 2, page 235) . . . . .
D.	Development of the Concept of Finality from Pre-kindergarten Age to Fourth Grade (see also graph 3, page 236) . . . . .
E.	Development of the Concept of Causality, from Pre-kindergarten Age to Fourth Grade (see also graph 4, page 237) . . . . .
F.	Development of the Concept of Inevitability, from Pre-kindergarten Age to Fourth Grade (see also graph 5, page 238) . . . . .
G.	Development of the Concept of Old Age, from Pre-kindergarten Age to Fourth Grade (see also graph 6, page 239) . . . . .
H.	Summation . . . . .
Chapter 7:	Development in Understanding of the Concepts of Death Among Children of Various Age Groups . . . . .	43
A.	Pre-kindergarten Age . . . . .
B.	Kindergarten Age . . . . .
C.	First Grade . . . . .
D.	Second Grade . . . . .
E.	Third and Fourth Grade . . . . .
Chapter 8:	Some General Conclusions on the Concepts of Death held by Israeli Children . . . . .	52
Part Two:	Helping the Orphaned Child to Deal with Death . . . . .	57
Chapter 1:	Problems in the Readjustment of the Orphan – A Review of the Literature . . . . .	58
Chapter 2:	The Help of Adults as a Factor in a Child’s Mourning Process . . . . .	62
Chapter 3:	The School as a Source of Help to the Orphan . . . . .	64
Chapter 4:	A Child’s Mourning Process and Teachers’ Help . . . . .	66
Part Three:	Teachers’ Questions and Children’s Conversation on the Subject of Death . . . . .	89

Chapter 1: Teachers' Questions and Children's Conversations about the Concept of Death's Irreversibility. . . . .	90
A. Teachers' Questions about the Concept of Irreversibility . . . . .
B. Children's Conversations about the Concept of Irreversibility . . . . .
Chapter 2: Teachers' Questions and Children's Conversations about the Concept of Death's Finality. . . . .	95
A. Teacher's Questions about the Concept of Finality . . . . .
B. Children's Conversations about the Concept of Finality . . . . .
Chapter 3: Teachers' Questions and Children's Conversations on the Concept of Death's Causality . . . . .	100
A. Teachers' Questions about the Concept of Causality . . . . .
B. Children's Conversations about the Concept of Causality . . . . .
Chapter 4: Teachers' Questions and Children's Conversations on the Concept of Death's Inevitability and Old Age . . . . .	104
A. Teacher's Questions about the Concept of Inevitability . . . . .
B. Children's Conversations about the Concept of Inevitability . . . . .
Chapter 5: Teachers' Questions Concerning the Process of Mourning . . . . .	108
Chapter 6: Teachers' Questions about the Orphan's Readjustment in the Classroom. . . . .	124
Summation . . . . .	126
Part Four: School Involvement and Action on the Subject of Death . . . . .	129
Chapter 1: The Significance of School Involvement . . . . .	129

A.	The Significance of School Involvement for the Orphan . . . . .
B.	The Significance of School Involvement for the Bereaved Family . . . . .
C.	The Significance of School Involvement for the Teacher . . . . .
Chapter 2:	Ways in which the School can help the Orphan . .	136
Chapter 3:	Dealing with the Subject of Death in School is Beneficial for Non-Orphans . . . . .	139
	Summation . . . . .	140
Part Five:	Interviews with Adults Orphaned in Childhood. . . . .	141
A.	Aim of the Interviews and the Population . . . . .
B.	Questions asked in the Interviews . . . . .
	Interview of Subject No. 1 . . . . .	143
	Interview of Subject No. 2 . . . . .	149
	Interview of Subject No. 3 . . . . .	154
	Interview of Subject No. 4 . . . . .	162
	Interview of Subject No. 5 . . . . .	167
	Interview of Subject No. 6 . . . . .	173
	Interview of Subject No. 7 . . . . .	179
	Interview of Subject No. 8 . . . . .	184
	Interview of Subject No. 9 . . . . .	190
Part Six:	Questionnaire for Examination of Human and Animal Death Conceptualization, of Children Aged 4-12, and its Psychometric Characteristics . . . . .	195
1.	Questionnaire for examination of human and animal death conceptualization of children Aged 4-12 . . . . .	195
2.	Rationale behind the concepts selected and included in the questionnaire. . . . .	197
3.	Diagnostic summary record of an individual child's conceptualization of death . . . . .	203
4.	Psychometric characteristics of the questionnaire: sample; construction of the questionnaire; validity and reliability . . .	205
5.	Guide: administration and scoring key of the "Question-

naire for examination of human and animal death conceptualization of children” . . . . .	211
6. Quantitative and qualitative analysis and diagnosis . . . . .	222
7. Possible uses of the questionnaire . . . . .	225
Part Seven: Bibliography . . . . .	227
Part Eight: Graphs, Tables, short descriptions of studies . . . . .	235
1. Conceptualization of death, according to children’s age and parents’ education . . . . .	236
2. Concept of irreversibility in human and animal death, according to children’s age . . . . .	237
3. Concept of finality in human and animal death, according to children’s age . . . . .	238
4. Concept of causality in human and animal death, according to children’s age . . . . .	239
5. Concept of inevitability in human and animal death, according to children’s age . . . . .	240
6. Concept of old-age in human and animal death, according to children’s age . . . . .	241
7. Short Description of Study: “How Orphanhood Affects the Conceptualization of Death” . . . . .	242
8. Short Description of Study: “Use of Poems as a Means to Help young children Understand and Cope with Death” .	245