
Contents

	Page
FOREWORD	v
Edwin S. Shneidman
INTRODUCTION	1
1. FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS: THE EPIDEMIOLOGY OF ADOLESCENT SUICIDE	9
Official Statistics: Constraints and Limitations	10
Adolescent Suicide Statistics	12
The When, Where, and How of Adolescent Suicide	23
Suicide Attempting Behaviors	27
Conclusion	28
2. THE THEORETICAL CONTEXT	33
Intuitive Models	33
Overview of Theories	36
The Developmental Context	51
The Interpersonal Context	58
Conclusion	60
3. THE EMPIRICAL CONTEXT	67
Difficulties of Suicide Research	67
Research Methodology: Review and Critique	71
Suicidal Behaviors	78
Risk Factors	89
Conclusion	110
4. ASSESSMENT OF RISK: EARLY DETECTION	123
The Referral Source	124
The Referral Context	125
The Need for Multifocal Assessment	127
Assessment Areas	128
The Screening of Suicidal Risk	148
Conclusion	158
5. THE TREATMENT OF THE SUICIDAL ADOLESCENT	163
Macrotherapeutic Issues: Developing a Working Relationship	167
The Treatment Plan	178
Crisis Intervention	187

Beyond Crisis Intervention	197
From Good Practice to Malpractice	213
Conclusion	219
6. PREVENTION AND POSTVENTION	227
Youth Suicide Prevention: Federal and Public Health Initiatives	229
Community Approaches to Prevention	230
School-Based Prevention	233
Survivors of Suicide and Postvention	243
Bereavement	247
Therapeutic Approaches to Survivorship	251
Conclusion	260
INDEX	267
ABOUT THE AUTHORS	277