

Contents

PART I. MARKETS ARE EVERYWHERE

1. Introduction: Every Market Tells a Story 3
2. Markets for Breakfast and Through the Day 15
3. Lifesaving Exchanges 29

PART II. THWARTED DESIRES: HOW MARKETPLACES FAIL

4. Too Soon 57
5. Too Fast: The Greed for Speed 81
6. Congestion: Why Thicker Needs to Be Quicker 101
7. Too Risky: Trust, Safety, and Simplicity 113

PART III. DESIGN INVENTIONS TO MAKE MARKETS SMARTER, THICKER, AND FASTER

8. The Match: Strong Medicine for New Doctors 133
9. Back to School 153
10. Signaling 169

PART IV. FORBIDDEN MARKETS AND FREE MARKETS

11. Repugnant, Forbidden . . . and Designed 195
12. Free Markets and Market Design 217

Notes 233

Index 247