

Contents

Ulla Carlsson A Brief Introduction	7
Views from a Nordic Horizon
Helge Rønning Freedom of Expression is Not a Given Right	13
Risto Kunelius The Satanic Pendulum. Notes on Free Speech, the Public Sphere and Journalism in 2013	27
Kaarle Nordenstreng Deconstructing Libertarian Myths About Press Freedom	45
Arne H. Krumsvik Freedom of Expression and the Professionalization of Journalism	61
Elisabeth Eide Norway and 22 July: A Clash of Diagnoses ...? A Media Debate on Freedom of Expression Revisited	73
Oluf Jørgensen The Scope of Freedom of Information. To What Legal Bodies and Functions Does the Right of Access to Information Apply?	93
Views from Global and European Horizons
Rikke Frank Jørgensen Freedom of Expression in the Internet Era	119
Guy Berger Mapping Freedom of Expression. A Global Endeavour	131
William Horsley Towards a Better World: What the North Can Do. Safety and an Enabling Environment for Journalists	145
Anna Celsing European Union. Promoting Freedom of Expression Only an External Affair?	157
The Authors	169