

CONTENTS

PREFACE xi

PROLOGUE xiii

CHAPTER ONE

THE SPANIARD

In which a momentous life begins

1

CHAPTER TWO

THE RIGHT TEACHER

This boy could become 'a second Mozart'

23

CHAPTER THREE

MEETING MOZART

Watch out for that boy

43

CHAPTER FOUR

WORD SPREADS

Young Beethoven as kitchen scullion

63

CONTENTS

CHAPTER FIVE

IMPRESSING THE VIENNESE

But Haydn feels the wrath of an angry young man

89

CHAPTER SIX

MY POOR HEARING HAUNTS ME

But there is 'a dear charming girl who loves me'

107

CHAPTER SEVEN

ONLY MY ART HELD ME BACK

In which Beethoven considers suicide

123

CHAPTER EIGHT

EGYPTIAN HIEROGLYPHICS

Napoleon is no more than 'a common tyrant'

137

CHAPTER NINE

O, BELOVED J!

Musical failure, but will Beethoven succeed in love?

155

CHAPTER TEN

A DEEPLY IMMORAL WOMAN

Beethoven holds the most important concert of his life,
and is offered a job

173

CONTENTS

CHAPTER ELEVEN

UNDER CANNON FIRE

In which Beethoven once again tries his luck at love
193

CHAPTER TWELVE

IMMORTAL BELOVED

'My angel, my all, my very self'
207

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

AN UTTERLY UNTAMED PERSONALITY

Beethoven turns again to his 'poor shipwrecked opera'
223

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

INTO THE WITNESS BOX

How the single letter 'o' ruined Beethoven's life
243

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

A MUSICAL GIFT FROM LONDON

How Rossini found Beethoven 'disorderly and dirty'
261

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

'I WANT TO BE A SOLDIER'

In which Beethoven gets drunk with friends
283

CONTENTS

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

TWO PISTOLS AND GUNPOWDER

An invitation to get away from it all

303

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

FRIGHTENING THE OXEN

'The greatest composer of the century,
and you treated him like a servant!'

321

CHAPTER NINETEEN

TERMINALLY ILL

'His face was damp, he spat blood'

337

CHAPTER TWENTY

THE LAST MASTER

'He was an artist, but a man as well'

353

POSTSCRIPT 361

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 367

NOTES 369

INDEX 379