

Table of contents

Preface	VII
List of contributors	IX
The North of England and Northern English Raymond Hickey	1
PART I The North of England: Language and culture
The enregisterment of Northern English Joan C. Beal & Paul Cooper	27
The Great Vowel Shift in the North of England Hilary Prichard	51
Morphosyntactic features of Northern English Isabelle Buchstaller & Karen P. Corrigan	71
The history of present indicative morphosyntax from a northern perspective Julia Fernández Cuesta	99
Northern English: Historical lexis and spelling Javier Ruano-García, Pilar Sánchez-García & María F. García-Bermejo Giner	131
PART II Locations within the North: Variation and change
Tyneside Adam Mearns	161
Sunderland Lourdes Burbano-Elizondo	183
Carlisle and Cumbria Sandra Jansen	205
Sheffield Katie Finnegan	227

Middlesbrough	251
Carmen Llamas
Lancashire	271
William Barras
Manchester English	293
Maciej Baranowski & Danielle Turton
Language attitudes and divergence on the Merseyside/Lancashire border	317
Helen Faye West
PART III The North: Transitions and borders
Borders and boundaries in the North of England	345
Chris Montgomery
The East Midlands	369
Natalie Braber & Nicholas Flynn
The West Midlands	393
Esther Asprey
Between North and South: The Fenland	417
David Britain
The north above the North: Scotland and Northern English	437
Warren Maguire
Non-native northern English	459
Rob Drummond
Index	479