

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Commendatory prefaces	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
INTRODUCTION
The Novel and the Representation of Reality	1
Portraits of the Artist	7
PART I: ILLUSORY REALITY AND THE QUESTION OF IDENTITY
The Echoes of Silence	17
Ambiguity: the Ripe Fruit of Postcolonial Discourse	26
" Cogito ergo sum " in Reverse in the Light of Postcolonial Theory	29
The Postcolonial Discourse Implicit in Birchwood	31
The Function of the Comic and the Grotesque in Postcolonial Discourse	48
PART II: SCIENCE AND FICTION
A Dialogic Encounter Between Science and Fiction	53
(In)validating Phenomena and Fiction	61
The Convenient Form	75
A Synthesis Emanating from Form	81
The Revelation of Fictional Truth	95
Order out of Chaos	107
The "Turning Point" in Literature	124
PART III: THE ART OF WRITING AND THE VISUAL ARTS
The Labyrinth of Multiplicity	127
A Crossroads of Discourses	148
CLOSING REFLECTIONS:
Mirrors and Holographic Labyrinths	157
Bibliography	163
Index	179