

Contents

Preface.....	7
Acknowledgments.....	11
I. Art and Aesthetics.....	13
1. The Nature and Limits of Analytic Aesthetics.....	15
2. The Invention of Modern Aesthetics: From Leibniz to Kant.....	31
3. Notions of the Aesthetic and of Aesthetics.....	55
4. Aesthetics, Philosophy of Culture, and “The Aesthetic Turn”.....	75
5. The Distinction between Aesthetics and the Sociology of Art: Remarks on Bourdieu’s Critique of Aesthetics.....	99
6. Understanding and Appreciating Art: The Relevance of Experience.....	107
II. Music, Literature, and Painting.....	121
1. On Form and Content.....	123
2. Formalism in Music: Eduard Hanslick and Peter Kivy.....	143
3. Susanne Langer on Representation and Emotion in Music.....	163
4. The Analogy between Ornament and Music.....	177
5. Northern Light and Darkness in Music and Painting, or, the Artistic Expression of Cultural Identity.....	191
6. Art, Literature and Value.....	205
III. Heidegger and the Essence of Art.....	235
1. Heidegger’s van Gogh.....	237
2. Being, Art, and Great Art.....	261
IV. Modernity/Postmodernity and Culture.....	321
1. Postmodernism, History, and “The Linguistic Turn”.....	323
2. The Visible, the Invisible, and the Sublime: Reflexions on the Lyotardian Sublime.....	353
3. Scientism, Humanism, and the Humanities: The Challenge of Evolutionary Psychology.....	367
Plates I-XIV.....	399
Photo credits.....	413
Index of Names.....	417